

Thanksgiving game stuffed

by James Pote

This upcoming Thanksgiving will mark the end of a 60-year era in the towns of Wilmington and Tewksbury.

Since 1935, Wilmington and Tewksbury have played a Turkey Day football game every year with the exception of 1944. This upcoming Nov. 23 will be the last Thanksgiving Day meeting between the two towns.

Thursday night, the Merrimack Valley Conference Athletic Directors voted 9-0, with Tewksbury's Mickey Sullivan abstaining, to switch several of the match-ups around to better suit the league.

Since Wilmington abandoned the MVC ship with a move to the Cape Ann League starting this year, the MVC apparently wanted no part of Wilmington and voted to disrupt the traditional Tewksbury-Wilmington game. As a result of the vote, Tewksbury will play Andover in 1996 while Wilmington does not yet have a game.

For the past several years, Haverhill has been pleading with the MVC to get rid of their Thanksgiving game with Salem, N.H. in favor of a league game. Haverhill has never had an MVC opponent on Turkey Day. Before Salem, they had match-ups against Austin Prep and Greater Lawrence.

Salem was in the same boat. They too wanted to get rid of their short rivalry with the Haverhill Hillies.

During the MVC meeting there were eight different proposals that were recommended, Sullivan said. Lowell and Lawrence offered to throw away their 100-year rivalry if they could help the league, but only if Lowell would play Chelmsford and not Tewksbury, as had also been suggested. There was also a proposal that would have pitted Tewksbury and Haverhill against each other.

With many different possibilities on the table, the league finally decided that Haverhill would play Central Catholic and Andover, who had been playing Central, would play Tewksbury. Wilmington was left to fend for themselves.

"I'm disappointed and very upset with the decision," said Wilmington Athletic Director Jim Gillis.

"I have been the athletic director here for the past 17 years and I have never been so disappointed. I played in the [Thanksgiving] game and I went to the game when I was a child ... I'm completely devastated."

Sullivan seemed equally disappointed.

"Getting rid of a 60-year rivalry is not an easy thing to do. I didn't want to get rid of the game, but something had to be done for Haverhill. I didn't take part in the vote because I didn't want to see it end. Wilmington thought they had to do what was right for their program by switching to the Cape Ann League, which is fine - I have no problem with that ... but I only have one vote and even if I did vote it wouldn't have mattered."

Sullivan also said that if the two towns had to end their rivalry, Andover was his choice to begin a new rivalry with and he hopes both Tewksbury and Andover will have a successful future. He also wished Wilmington good luck in finding a new opponent and he expressed a desire that Wilmington and Tewksbury continue their football tradition with a non-league battle, perhaps at the start of the year.

The MVC decision leaves Gillis and the entire Wilmington High athletic program facing some tough questions. Who Wilmington will play on Thanksgiving even next year is the first question to be answered.

"I don't know. There are only two teams in Eastern Mass. who don't have a Thanksgiving opponent," Gillis said. "Maybe we can find a team from Southern New Hampshire."

All of the Cape Ann teams have dates for the big dance. Wilmington's best bet could be if MVC Dracut follows the Wildcats into the CAL. In that scenario, Wilmington could be matched with the Middies.

What is perhaps most frustrating about the decision to the two athletic directors is that according to Gillis, Wilmington and Tewksbury had a two-year verbal contract with each other to play the game this year and next. Gillis said that the day before the MVC decision was finalized, he and Sullivan were discussing a four-year extension that would have taken the game to the year 2000.

Sullivan confirmed on Wednesday morning that he and Gillis had a two-year agreement and were discussing the four-year extension. Still, both men knew a deal would only be approved if the new MVC proposals didn't affect the Tewksbury-Wilmington game. They did.

Gillis was upset that the MVC wouldn't give the two towns an additional year of play that would have allowed Wilmington more time to seek a replacement opponent.

"That is what I'm upset about. At least [the MVC] could have let us play out the final year of the contract so we could have a year to find someone to play," Gillis said.

Gillis also said that he never thought the rivalry would end. He, like Sullivan, said that if it can fit into each other's schedule and if Tewksbury wants to continue the tradition, Gillis would want to keep at least a non-league game with Tewksbury, though not on Thanksgiving.

Another question that has to be answered is what does this mean for the already tight-budgeted Wilmington athletic program?

"I don't even want to think about the business end of this yet. It's a possibility that we might not have a Thanksgiving game after this season. If that happens, we could be in deep, deep trouble. I don't even want to think about that," Gillis said.

Along with Gillis, both coaches were very discouraged with the news.

"I'm very disappointed. To think that after this year that on Thanksgiving Wilmington and Tewksbury will not be playing is just a shame. I can't believe it," said WHS head coach Gerry Sullivan.

Tewksbury High head coach Bob Aylward was equally dumbfounded.

"I have been involved with this game for 27 years now between coaching and my kids playing. I always tell the kids that there is nothing in these two towns that has lasted 60 years that brings as many people together as this game. A Tewksbury-Andover game just doesn't sound the same," Aylward said.

Aylward also said that he could go on and on about all of the memorable games between the two towns. He said he has met a lot of people and a lot of his friends have come from this rivalry.

"I'm totally disheartened. I just can't believe it. I never thought this day would come," Aylward said.

"I can't believe that all of the tradition will be thrown out the window. It's a sad day," Gillis said.

Gillis said he went through the entire listing for every Thanksgiving game that goes on throughout the entire state. Teams like Holyoke (a division one school), Mount Graylock (which is near the western border of the state) and the Minutemen of Lexington are the lone schools around without an opponent.

Unless fans want to drive two-and-a-half hours to Mount Graylock and risk being late for their Thanksgiving dinner, it looks as if Wilmington will have to hook-up with a team from New Hampshire. Pelham and Alvirine appear to be the front-runners, as their varsity programs are just starting to get off the ground.

Gillis said he would look into the situation with Salem. Apparently neighbors Shawsheen Tech and Austin Prep can be ruled out since both of them have games with Georgetown and Bishop Fenwick, respectively.

But as of right now, Wilmington could have a ten-game schedule with a bye on Thanksgiving.

With this being the final year of these two teams playing on Thanksgiving Day, Tewksbury holds a 32-20-7 edge, which includes winning nine of the last ten contests.

At Halloween graveyards seem to pop up all over town. This one on Woburn Street near Lucci's has drawn several unsolicited votes from passers by. The Town Crier is NOT having a contest but people are "voting" anyway.

Still missing after all these years

by Jeff Nazzaro

A large, commemorative plaque honoring the 277 men and women from Wilmington who served in the U.S. Armed Forces during World War II has been uncovered and will likely be displayed on the Town Common following the Veteran's Day Parade.

The roughly five-by-three-foot plaque was last week thought to be the long-lost monument that used to grace the circular driveway of the old Town Hall, now the Wilmington Arts Council building. A memorial to fallen son Robert Parent, who was killed in action during the Vietnam War, rests in that spot.

Fred Shine, who commanded the now defunct Wilmington Chapter of the Disabled American Veterans organization from 1980-1986, said he had given up looking for the monument a decade ago. But last week Shine received a call from longtime Wilmington Historical Commission member Dorothy Lafionatis, who told him about the plaque - which sat in the carriage house of the Harnden Tavern - and that veterans and other townspeople might be interested in seeing it as part of World War II 50th anniversary proceedings.

Shine thought Lafionatis had found what he had been looking for. But now, many who remember the old Town Hall monument say it was much larger, consisting of three panels framed in white wood.

That piece of town history was presumed missing, thought found, and now figured gone again.

"We looked everywhere," Shine said, beginning with the arts council building and moving through the veterans organizations. Then Shine said it was thought the monument had been stored in the old carriage house that used to sit directly behind the Roman House, on the Wilmington High School campus. That structure was moved behind the WHS football field and in the mid-eighties was burned by vandals.

"We thought it was in there," Shine said. "We thought it was gone."

And it seems it is. But the important information, that being the names of those from Wilmington who served during World War II, have been preserved on this second plaque.

Currently, Lafionatis and her 21-year-old granddaughter, Lydia, have plans to restore the artifact to ready it for Veterans Day. Then there are hopes that it will be permanently erected, probably on the Town Common.

DPW Superintendent Bob Palmer said he received a call asking that the plaque be erected. Palmer said he would support such action but that he referred the call to the town manager's office. The board of selectmen would most likely vote on putting up the plaque if it were ever done.

For now, though no one seems sure where this plaque originated, the town does have a valuable reminder of the sacrifices made by its own sons and daughters during World War II.

"There's so much history in it," Lafionatis said. "There's so much history."

What is found isn't always what was lost. Although this carefully prepared list of men and women from Wilmington was "found" it is not the one that was in front of the old town hall on Rt. 62.

Bucks for burgers

by Jeff Nazzaro

Can I get a Big Mac, some of those chicken things, a strawberry shake and a few hundred bucks for the local kindergarten?

Yup. North Reading McDonald's, Oct. 23 from 4-7 p.m. You want fries with that?

On that date, from that time, North Reading McDonald's owner Ken Shapiro will donate a sliding percentage of every cent he brings in to the Boutwell School PAC.

Monday, Oct. 19, a similar event raised $301 for the Shawsheen School PAC. Not bad for a few hours of burgers and some fun with friends.

"It's a real easy way for the PACs to make money," Shapiro said. "We try and tie in with the schools and give something back to the communities that give to us."

Shapiro said a North Reading kindergarten recently raised over $400 with a similar event and he expects a large turnout for the Boutwell fundraiser.

PUT YOUR PARENTS TO WORK

Let Uncle Sam help support your parents. If you have a small business, you can use pretax dollars for support instead of after tax dollars by putting them to work for you.

As members of the board of directors of your business, your parents can be paid an annual director's fee and a per-meeting fee as well - even travel costs to attend the board meetings. Medical coverage can be a directors' perk, too. Fees are paid by the company and taxable to the parents, who are presumably in a lower tax bracket than the adult child running the company. There are three caveats: the parents must be capable of serving as directors, the fees and expense must be reasonable for the work done, and too much "earned" income may affect their Social Security benefits.

To save further tax dollars, it is possible to make the parents part owners of the firm's Subchapter-S corporation. Distributions are taxed at the parents' low rate and, because these are not salaries, no Social Security, Medicare or payroll taxes are due.

Business people know they can depend on the tax know-how of the professionals at Fifteen qualify at Wilmington's "West"

Fifteen seventh graders from the West Intermediate School have qualified to participate in the 1996 Talent Search sponsored by the Johns Hopkins University Center for Talented Youth. To be eligible for this, a student must have scored in the 97-99th percentile in one of the following subtests of the IOWA Test of Basic Skills taken in grade five; math concepts, math problem solving, math total score, reading, social studies, science or total composite score.

These Talent Search students are able to take the S.A.T. I Reasoning Test, a test designed for college bound high school juniors and seniors. The West congratulates the following students:

Daniel Alosco, Christopher Calway, Andrew Coyne, Brianna Daisy, Eric Farrell, Katie Gillis, Tarryn Guarino, John Jamerson, Cheryl Kelly, Matthew Koslowski, Rebecca Lord, Kerry Martin, Erin Roache, Julie Swartwout, Krista Wolfe.

Visitors to the October 26 Community Open House at Shawsheen Tech will have a chance to "surf the Internet," something students in the school's Telecommunications program are learning along with software development, customer service and training functions for their new careers in this emerging field.

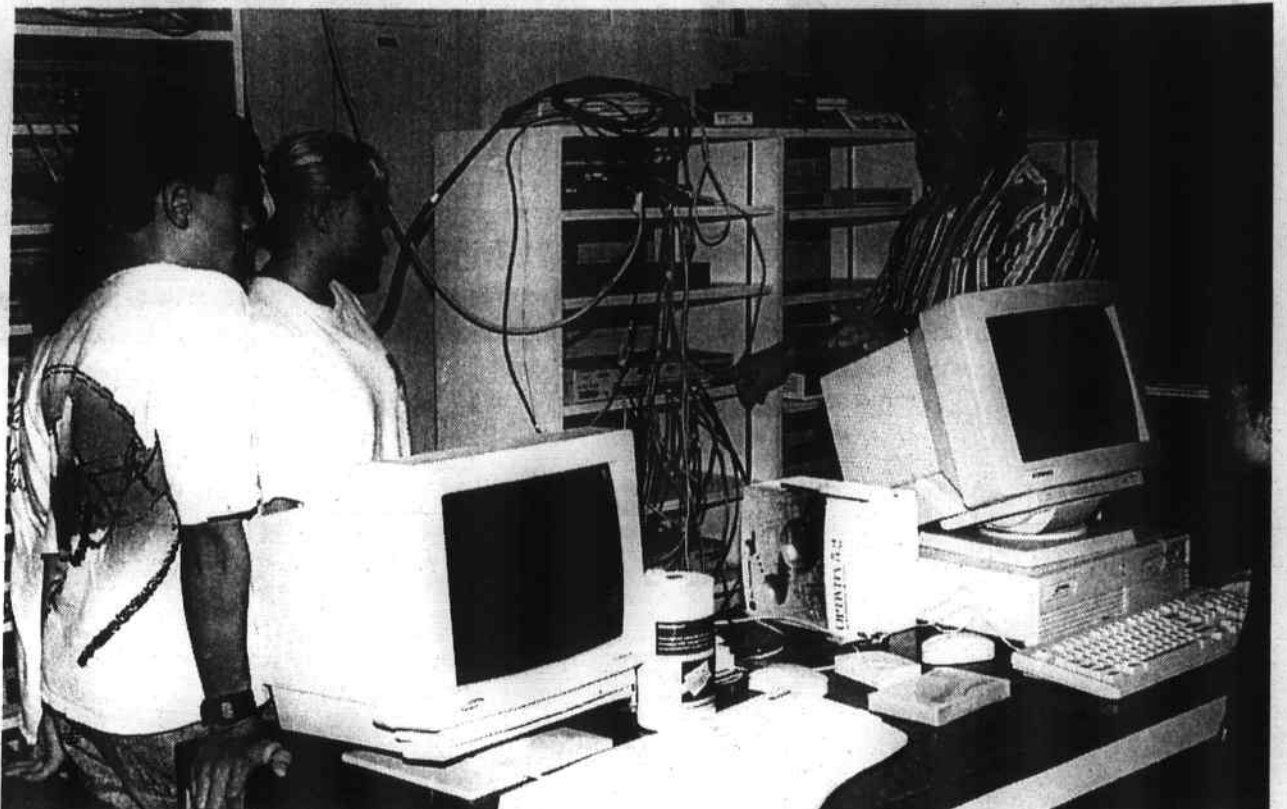

"We are running the program like a business, so students will learn what they need to get good jobs," says Jim Smyth, director of Data Processing for the school. While all students will eventually have the chance to cruise the network for information on everything from political campaigns, complete with audio to frog dissection, complete with pictures, those specializing in Telecommunication will learn the how's and why's of networking.

"Telecommunications students will understand the process," notes Smyth. "To most people, the Internet is this gigantic black box. You punch some buttons and it comes up. Our students will be able to explain what happens, how it works."

Offering explanations and education are two instructors, Joseph Guarino, long time Shawsheen Tech data processing instructor and Ed Griffin, a former software engineer with Innovative Information Systems in Norwood and a certified teacher who has taught both electronics and data processing at other technical schools including Assabet Valley in Marlborough and Keefe Tech in Framingham.

Griffin has a goal for his classes in his new role as Telecommunications instructor. "I would like to see our students complete a real world project the school can use by the end of this school year."

Students will be educated in four areas, networking, software development, customer service and training to optimize their employment opportunities. They will design and write programs and learn how to maintain the software they have written, as they would need to in industry. "All students will have portfolios of their work to show prospective employers," adds Smyth. Some of those employers might hire them to install networks, perform customer service functions, or train others on products such as Microsoft Office.

At Open House, there will be 10 machines set up in the library for area residents and prospective students to try their hand at Internet functions. Students and instructors will be there to assist.

Open House takes place from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 26. All vocational-technical programs will be open, with students and instructors on hand to demonstrate equipment, offer displays and answer questions. Both academic areas and the Internet will have areas in the library/media center.

Visitors can register for door prizes of student produced products and services, including a Day of Beauty from Cosmetology, an oil change from Automotive Technology and bakery products from the culinary department. There will be special drawings throughout the evening for eighth graders, who can win Shawsheen hats and t-shirts.

The game is up, the end is nigh

by James Pote

It is indeed a sad time for both Wilmington and Tewksbury. It has been said that nothing lasts forever, and in this case, the old saying holds true. The 60-year era of Wilmington and Tewksbury Thanksgiving Day football battles is gone. See-ya later. History. Absolutely in the books for good.

This past Thursday, the MVC ruled that Tewksbury will now play Andover starting next year and Central Catholic, who was playing Andover will now take on Haverhill, who never had a league opponent to begin with. So where does that leave Wilmington? Out in no man's land. All by themselves. All dressed up and no one to hit.

This year's game will be one to remember regardless of what the scoreboard says. Fans should save their ticket stubs - those alone will be a part of the 60 years of not necessarily a football game but a game where 4,000 or so people gathered to reminiscence old faces in old places and most of all old times. This 60 year history is not about a football game - it is about a social gathering. And just thinking that none of this will no longer occur, makes me ill to my stomach.

I can remember my senior year in high school, sitting with my friends in the Tewksbury stands. Wilmington was pulling off an upset win. With about one minute left in the game, the entire section that I was sitting in, including myself, walked down onto the field to start counting down the time left in the game. I was one of those stupid people who was just having a good time. I remember going down to the Wilmington sidelines talking to the players before the game was officially over. That entire section jumped on the field, onto the WHS players and onto the coaches as the clock ticked down to zero. All of the players took the water bucket and drenched then coach Ed Harrison. The Wilmington fans were going completely nuts. And I remember being in high school and enjoying that day - I was with my friends, happy because my senior class won that day. And right now, my class stands as the last team to beat Tewksbury. Looking back at that instance when I ran on the field with hundreds of others, congratulating my friends, classmates and their coaches, that was Wilmington's last victory party. I was glad at that time that I was part of that. But now those memories will be thrown out the window.

But, right now those feelings and memories don't matter. I am a WHS alumnus but I cheer for both towns and I have to remain neutral as to who I want to win. Heck, I want both teams to win every year. I get to meet with many different players and I root each and every one of them on. And now that will not happen ever on Turkey Day.

Nothing will ever happen again on the last Thursday of November. No more Wilmington players celebrating on Tewksbury's turf and no more Tewksbury players celebrating on Wilmington's turf. No more games being decided by a fake punt play and no more games to be played in the snow. No more games will be decided by a field goal in the last minute to decide whether or not one of the two teams will go to the Super Bowl. None of that will ever matter anymore - at least not on Thanksgiving. At least not for the longstanding rivalry of Tewksbury-Wilmington.

Whose fault is it? Well, you can't blame the Merrimack Valley. Wilmington vacated their league and Haverhill was crying for a league opponent after going years and years without one. I can guarantee that no one feels worse about this than WHS Athletic Director Jim Gillis. But, these are the consequences he has to face since he left the football-rich MVC for the Cape Ann League. I do agree that the MVC decided this in a terrible way. Wilmington and Tewksbury still had another year on their contract. Why couldn't the MVC wait at least until that contract expired?

Nothing will ever be the same in these two towns. TMHS head coach Bob Aylward said it perfectly. He told me that he says to the kids every year that he has coached this famous game that there is nothing in these two towns that will bring this many people together to watch another chapter in a 60-year saga unfold. He is absolutely correct. It's not a football game. It's a social gathering that keeps both athletic programs together because of the large profits it brings in. Who knows what will happen to Wilmington athletics in the future? Who knows if they will even have an entire athletic program five or ten years from now? Tewksbury, on the other hand, will be fine because their new rivalry with Andover should eventually draw as many or nearly as many fans as Wilmington did.

Jim Gillis did what he thought was best for his program. It took Wilmington several tries to get into the Cape Ann League because Gillis refused to give up the Thanksgiving game. Even though I will never agree with the move to the Cape Ann League, give Gillis credit for trying to do what he thought was best for the kids. Maybe Wilmington will pick up a Dracut or someone down the line. But as of right now it doesn't look good. At least not after this Thanksgiving.

Tewksbury

In commemoration of the 75th anniversary of Boy Scouts, over 9,000 Boy Scouts from Mass. and R.I. were scheduled to camp in Tewksbury over the weekend. An additional 300 Cub Scouts would join the group on Sunday.

Town meeting voters rejected an article that would have imposed a five minute speaking limit for town meetings.

Voters agreed that Gerald Colton of Catamount Road should be allowed to take the civil service exam for firefighters even though he exceeded the age limit for doing so.

High School teacher Richard Zbieg asked voters to reimburse him $905 for his personal Apple computer that was among several pieces of electronic equipment stolen when the school was broken into. Mr. Zbieg took his Apple to class in an effort to allow a greater number of students "hands on" experience. It took 45 minutes and three votes for townspeople to deny his request.

Soccer player Ed Sipowicz was pictured as he slipped and slid on the wet Andover turf during a loss under the lights.

Lions Club President Clifford Bolton was pictured with Lions District Governor Brian Abbott and former Lion Andrew Kilpatrick. Mr. Abbott was at the meeting to compliment the club for all the funds it donated to eye research.

The board of health signed an agreement with the state that would begin the program for fluoridation of the town's water.

Sports Newsnote :

This Thanksgiving Day when the Wilmington High School football team takes the field to challenge their Tewksbury High School counterparts, it will mark the 60th Turkey Day meeting between the neighboring schools. Sadly though, it will also mark the end of the rivalry that has brought area football fans year after year of excitement. Beginning next year, Tewksbury High School will take on Andover HS for the Thanksgiving matchup ... but Wilmington, headed for a slot in the Cape Ann League, has yet to find a new dance partner.

Letters to the editor

Dear Larz:

I would like to thank the Tewksbury Knights of Columbus for paying for the installation of a scooter-lift in my car for my son's motorized scooter.

For the past three years, I, along with many good people in Tewksbury (you know who you are) have risked their backs to lift that 100-plus-pound scooter into the back of my wagon so that my handicapped son could enjoy watching a baseball game at Livingston Street or other recreational activity.

The motorized scooter gives him what he wants most - independence to move about on his own during these events, rather than sitting stationary in his manual wheelchair. Unfortunately, because this town doesn't know what "continuous sidewalks with cut curbs" means on Main Street, he was unable to venture down on his own (although he did try once - narrowly missing getting hit by a car).

I would sincerely like to thank the Knights and all those good Samaritans who have helped me and my son. It was truly appreciated.

Sincerely,
Loretta Pellegrino

Dear Larz:

Enclosed is an excerpt from the Portland [Maine] Press Herald. It indicates the sentences handed down in each case. Your paper merely lists the felonies. It would be more beneficial to see what the enclosure shows rather than just the arrests. Here I wonder if Mass. judges are too lenient against offenders.

Yours truly,
Joseph G. Zukas

[The Wilmington Police log, as transcribed in the Town Crier, includes, under the arrests, a listing of "Court updates," which is essentially the same thing as the enclosed listing from the Portland Press Herald-Ed.]

AMERICAN GUTTER CLEANING CO.
(508) 851-6045

Family values are important to you. You make decisions based on how they will affect your loved ones. It follows that you would want your home improvements done by a business that applies the same family values in everything they do.

American Gutter Cleaning Co. is that kind of family-run company. Joe Rocha established the American Gutter Cleaning Co. over 10 years ago. He and his wife, Carol, run the company, along with their highly trained, reliable, and fully insured staff.

If your gutters aren't cleaned at least once or twice a year, you could be increasing the chance of interior water damage to your home. It's important to have your gutters cleaned and inspected for minor damage before the New England snow and ice arrive, and also in the spring after the maples and other trees have dropped their flowers or any remaining leaves.

If you're like most people and don't look forward to climbing up a ladder to do the job yourself, let American Gutter help you keep and American Gutter is ready!

that ladder in the shed - where it belongs. Their service is prompt, and their prices are reasonable... an average house, with aluminum gutters, is $35-$75. If you purchase a Gutter Cleaning Contract, which includes two cleanings per year, you'll enjoy a 10% discount and receive a free gutter inspection. And now, in addition to cleanings, American Gutter will install your new gutters. If you're planning to install 100 ft. or more of new gutters, take advantage of their special $50 discount.

To make arrangements and become a valued customer of the American Gutter Cleaning Co., call (508) 851-6045 today! Don't you think it's well worth it?

The Bride's Closet
668 Main Street, Wilmington, MA 01887
(508) 657-0277

It's the personal service that makes The Bride's Closet different from many other bridal shops. "Some girls tell me they feel lost at the bigger shops," says owner Stephanie Pearson. "Here, we take the time to make sure everything is put together perfectly - from start to finish." Pearson, a Wilmington resident, draws her knowledge from retail experience and a B.A. in fashion merchandising.

The Bride's Closet opened originally as a bridal consignment shop. Now, it carries only new products... the latest in bridal fashions, a large selection of headpieces and veils, matching jewelry and accessories, undergarments (they rent petticoats) and dyeable shoes, as well as bridesmaids and mothers' gowns. You can even order your invitations (discounted 20%) and rent the tuxedos.

"Some people have the misconception that small shops are more expensive," says Pearson, "but our gowns are moderately priced (starting at $398), plus we offer free layaway and gown storage."

The Bride's Closet is located in Wilmington at 668 Main St., Rt. 38 in Webber Terrace. They're open Tues. & Thurs. 12-8, Wed. & Fri. 11-6, and Sat. 10-4. Appointments are recommended, but drop-ins are always welcome.

13,000 mile quest

Wilmington family & guest looking for snow

by Jeff Nazzaro

"I want to see snow," said Mick, a 16-year-old living on Harold Avenue in Wilmington, OK. It's not an unreasonable request, and these New England skies will surely comply, but the question has been begged: how do you manage to live in Massachusetts and not see snow?

"I've seen it on the ground, melting, but I've never seen it actually fall," Mick said.

All right, enough of this meteorological charade.

Mick is the nickname of Krisada Kritayakirana, an exchange student from Thailand, a country in Southeast Asia with average temperatures in the 80's. In fact, the coldest it ever gets in Mick's native land is around 40 degrees, and that's rare.

Mick has never seen snow fall because he came to Wilmington to live with Jim Myers and Judy Thomson (she kept her maiden name) and their son, Andy, in August of this year, the start of an 11-month stay arranged through American Field Service, an organization that for the past 47 years has placed more than 200,000 exchange students around the world.

If anyone cares to remember, August '95 was downright Thailand-hot at times, so Mick found himself right at home upon arrival. In fact, he said only on the hottest, most humid days here did it feel like he was back in Bangkok, the capitol of Thailand and Mick's birthplace.

This is Mick's second visit to the States, where his father, Kantorn, a medical doctor in Bangkok, received his Ph.D. from Tufts University. Mick visited uncles in Texas and California, where he saw the melting snow.

But now he's ready for the full effects of an unbridled New England winter, and not the dud that pleased so many of us seasoned veterans a year ago.

"I want to go skiing," he said, while adding that he has already ice skated (indoors) back home in Bangkok.

Sports comprise one part of Mick's varied life. A junior at Wilmington High School, he plays on the junior varsity soccer team. The organized play of high school soccer is a lot different from the daily pickup games he played with friends after school in Thailand. He said he likes his WHS team but misses the spontaneity and carefree approach of sandlot soccer. And there are no practices for pickup games.

Jim and Judy took Mick to an American football game at Dartmouth, where their mutual alma mater, Lafayette College, was playing. A steady rain detracted from the pigskin festivities, but, while Mick may never have seen snow, in Thailand, the rainy season lasts months at a time.

In Thailand Mick also played volleyball and badminton.

Where Mick doesn't fool around, however, is on the pingpong table. The table tennis whiz took it easy on his host brother, 13-year-old Andy, and his friends at first, but no more.

"In the beginning he went easy on us in pingpong," Andy said. "But now we've gotten better, so..."

So Mick wipes the table with them. But, Andy said he loves having Mick there and he and his friends are really improving at pingpong.

"It's really nice," Andy said. "Every single one of my friends

came over and said 'can I meet Mick, can I meet Mick?'"

With Andy an eighth grader at the West Intermediate, Mick didn't get the same billing when he first entered WHS in late August as he did in the neighborhood.

"There are already Asian kids in the school," he said, "so when kids saw me they just thought I was someone who moved from another town."

After they caught on it was a different story.

Mick admits he was taken by the size of Wilmington High. The little school on Church Street is really dwarfed by the 4,000-student public school Mick attends in Bangkok. The biggest request so far from his new American classmates? Say something in Thai. Mick, who has a good command of the English language, will acquiesce with a few words of his "foreign" tongue.

Mick said he enjoys moving from class to class, with different students in each one. In Bangkok, he shares a room with the same 42 students every day. And, he has to wear a uniform.

His favorite subjects are math and science, but he likes the fact that in Wilmington he is allowed greater flexibility in choosing classes - the curriculum is more rigid in Thailand.

Mick also plays violin in the Thai Youth Symphony, while listening to a lot of American heavy metal with his Bangkok buddies.

As far as Wilmington, nestled in suburban splendor some 13,000 miles away, the city boy said he was impressed by "a lot of trees" and "no traffic jams." Bangkok, the largest city in Southeast Asia, boasts a population of six million people and lots of cars.

Mick happens to be a big-time car enthusiast, and, shortly after arriving, was taken by a neighbor to a vintage auto show in Tewksbury. There, he marveled at the big, powerful American road machines, which differ greatly from the sub-compact that dominate Bangkok's oft-choked avenues.

But still, what Mick misses most about home, besides his family and friends, is the public transportation. AFS has three rules for students: no drinking/drugs, no hitchhiking and no driving. So, despite being of legal age to do so, Mick won't get to test out the family truckster on Route 129.

"I miss the public bus because here you can't do anything if you don't have a car," he said. Welcome to America, Mick, and wait for the snow.

But getting back to family and friends, Mick's mates in Bangkok and his father, mother Pannee, older brother Kritaye (or "Mu") and older sister Kasanee ("Mo") are only an E-mail away, which he and his host family do often.

"I miss my family and friends from Bangkok," he said, but added that he writes almost weekly, though his mother doesn't think that to be nearly often enough.

Mick's in good hands in Wilmington, though.

"Mick feels like part of our family and he did right from the beginning," Judy said. "I think both Jim and I were apprehensive about the huge responsibility of caring for someone else's child. But there's been a lot of benefits so far already and I'm sure there will be more."

"We thought it would be culturally enriching to our son and to ourselves. We just thought it would be fun."

"And it has been," Jim concurred. And it hasn't even snowed yet.

It's Chamber of Commerce Week

The week of October 15 through the 21st, 1995 has been proclaimed as Chamber of Commerce Week in the Commonwealth and in the Town of Wilmington by Governor William F. Weld and Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, Diane Allan. Chambers of Commerce throughout Massachusetts, and specifically in Wilmington are being recognized and commended for the work they do to improve the economic climate of their community and the Commonwealth.

Representing over 285 Wilmington Chamber of Commerce members, President Ken Mastrullo, Agfa Div, Bayer Corp; Director Jane Fudge, AAJ Travel; Jim Mahoney, Por-Shun Inc.; and Executive Director Sandy Murphy attended a special "Chamber Day" celebration at the State House Monday, Oct. 16.

They were greeted by Senator Bruce Tarr, Representative Marianne Brenton, and Representative Jim Miceli; then escorted to "Great Hall" for the official presentation of the Governor's Proclamation and a luncheon with the Legislators and tour of the State House.

In recognition of the Chamber's 35th anniversary, the Board of Selectmen recognized the many contributions the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce has made to building a better business community, and acknowledged the Chamber's support for worthwhile programs that have benefited the citizens of the community.

To obtain a free list of Wilmington Chamber of Commerce members and the products and services they provide; or information on how to join the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, call Sandy Murphy at 508-657-7211.

Opening a bank for little people

Medford Savings Bank recently took the "Club for Kids" to the Parker School in Billerica, kicking off a unique in-school banking and educational program.

The Club for Kids is a special savings program designed just for children with a passbook savings account that can be opened with as little as $1. Twice each month the students at the Parker School will have the opportunity to make their deposits in school without making a special trip to the bank.

One hundred and eighty-seven Parker school students from grades two through five signed up to be part of the in-school banking program. The bank gave each child a special Club for Kids membership kit which includes a purple pen, a balloon and a coin saver with a quarter inside to begin saving for their next deposit.

Medford Savings Bank and the Parker School are working as partners in State Treasurer Malone's Saving Makes "Cents" program designed to help educate children about monetary concepts while encouraging them to develop the financial skills necessary in today's world.

The teachers at the school received a Savings Makes "Cents" manual to use as a tool in creating interesting projects and lessons for their classes. Parker School Principal Richard Cogan, an Medford Savings Bank's Wilmington branch manager, Theresa Miller, were very impressed with the enthusiasm of the children and their families to the concept of the in-school banking program.

Medford Savings Bank is a solid financial institution with a strong commitment to the communities it serves. The bank offers a wide variety of special programs and services to its customers from its 16 branch locations throughout Middlesex County.

Composting workshop October 26th

Find out how you can turn leaves, grass, weeds and food scraps into rich soil. On Thursday, October 26 at 7 p.m., the third in a series of workshops on backyard composting sponsored by the Town of Wilmington will be held in the Town Hall auditorium.

David Grise, a Wilmington resident who is an avid composter, will lead the presentation. The meeting will include an overview of the process for composting, a 15 minute video tape presentation "Turning your Spoils to Soils," handout material and samples of material in various stages of compost.

The workshop is intended to be very interactive, questions and discussions are encouraged.

Residents attending the last two sessions received instruction on the "dos and don'ts" of generating compost. Several residents offered their own experiences on everything from ways to make your own compost bins to materials to include in the compost pile. The October workshop is sure to generate some lively discussion.

Compost bins will be available after the workshop. The town has received a grant from the state Department of Environmental Protection (DEP). Two types of bins are being offered to Wilmington residents at the bargain rate of $18 each. The town will accept cash or a personal check made payable to the Town of Wilmington.

Composting bins are also available Monday through Friday between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the Public Buildings office (658-3017) on Middlesex Avenue and at the public works garage (658-4481) on Andover Street. Residents may purchase the "Earth Machine" at the public buildings office or the "Brave New Composter" at the public works garage. There is no limit to the number of bins which residents may purchase. Contact the respective offices for details.

Stone's in the Garden

Leaf season has begun

by Jackie Leszczak-Stone

The hoards of tourists that come to enjoy the New England autumn displays don't have to rake. For them leaf season is a time to enjoy the vibrant color while munching fresh baked muffins at bed and breakfasts. Leaf season for us (the Yankee, pahk- the- cah- in havahd yahd, locals) is cause to pray that they all blow away. We get our best views of fall color while we rake, blow, bag and shred our ever-falling leaves well into November.

The leaves of autumn fall slowly. First the early hickory and then the maples and birch, followed lastly by the dreaded and tenacious oaks. Why don't they all just drop together and get on with it?

Despite the nuisance, autumn leaves can be an excellent garden resource. Efficient handling is the key to minimize your effort and maximize results. We use the "blow and mow" method to collect and shred leaves for use as mulch in our perennial and vegetable beds. Now, while the grass is still rowing, we simply mulch mow them back into the lawn. Soon, however, the lawn growth will slow and the leaf cover will form a continuous carpet...then we blow.

Our blower is the electric reversing engine from our shop vac, but many more powerful and quieter leaf blowing equipment is available. The leaves are blown into a pile and then shredded by several passes with the lawn mower until the pile height is reduced to about a fifth of its original mass. (We also have a chipper-shredder, used mostly to shred stems and branches. The mower works just fine for leaves.)

flower beds. But even if you bag your leaves for sidewalk pickup, shredding will keep the volume down. You will need fewer bags and they will break down faster in municipal composting facilities. (Leaves no longer go into landfills.)

While you toil, ponder this simple description of the complex biochemical miracle that causes the annual leaf fall. The leaves of autumn are actually the early prophecy of next year's spring. During summer the trees create next year's leaves as embryonic buds at the base of each adult leaf. Trees, the planet's solar energy collectors, are very sensitive to the amount of sunlight available for photosynthesis. As the nights grow longer, less sunlight is available. This triggers the release of hormones that spur the formation of scar tissue between the stem and old leaf. As the scar tissue thickens the flow of water and nutrients into the leaf decreases, causing the green chlorophyll to die off. The yellow and orange color of carotenes remain.

Then, in those leaves that contain high amounts of sugar and carbohydrates (such as maple and sumac leaves) the sugars are converted into vibrant red anthocyanins. This year, due to the long stress of drought, the maples produced less sugar and the reds will not be as brilliant. Many maples will simply turn yellow. Finally, the thickening scar tissue causes the old leaves to die and fall from the branch, leaving next spring's leaf buds to quietly await the passing of winter.

So whether you rake or blow, shred or bag, remember...you are not preparing for winter. The trees are awaiting spring.

Tewksbury police officer threatened

by Bill Conlon
Sgt. Dennis Peterson has received threats before, so a recent six-page threatening letter came as just an unpleasant part of the job of being a police officer.

Peterson received the note in the mail from a group calling itself "Plant Innocent," a few days after a September 27 raid on a marijuana patch found on the Tewksbury-Andover line. Sgt. Peterson said he is unsure if the hand-written letter has any connection to the raid, but the letter has been sent to the FBI lab in Washington for examination. The detective noted that the letter was written with block letters, not in a cursive style, which may make it difficult to identify the author by handwriting alone. The letter was postmarked "Middlesex-Essex," so the letter was mailed locally.

The letter, Peterson said, had a heavily religious tone, warning him to "turn from your sins" and that he would "join your ancestors in a fiery hell" for his transgressions.

None of the marijuana reform groups claim any knowledge of a group called "Plant Innocent," the detective said, adding that the threat might be the work of an individual, and not a formal group.

"We are obviously not dealing with a stable person," Peterson said of the author.

Curiously, a member of the Massachusetts Cannabis Reform Coalition, or Mass Cann, appeared at the Tewksbury police station while the plants were being weighed and measured on September 27. The man's name and a sample of his handwriting that he accidentally left behind are in police possession, but he has not been named as a suspect.

Peterson said he has no problem with the work of those seeking to reform marijuana laws. Besides, it is highly unusual for any marijuana reform group to become involved with violence or threatening.

"I respect their opinions," he said. "If that's what they believe in that's fine." Peterson said marijuana now is more plentiful than it was in the 1970s, in part because the North American Free Trade Agreement has eased restrictions for crossing the U.S. - Mexican border.

Peterson said no further threats have been made regarding the bust on September 27.

As for the earlier threats made against him, he said, many of them had to be taken very seriously.

"The ones that stand out the most are in jail now," he added. "Those guys I'm not worried about."

The most recent threat, however, is a cause for concern, and police are actively investigating the case.

Basil and May Weatherbee of West Street, Wilmington were guests of their children at a recent luncheon served at the Kernwood in Lynnfield, celebrating the couple's 70th wedding anniversary. Married in Cambridge, September 23, 1925, Mr. and Mrs. Weatherbee have been residents of Wilmington for almost 60 years.

Easter Seal Office Olympix

Plans are underway for the fourth annual Office Olympix for Easter Seals, sponsored by Business Equipment Depot, to be held Thurs., Nov. 2 at the Burlington Marriott Hotel.

Office Olympix offers teams from local companies and organizations an opportunity to help people with disabilities and have fun at the same time. Five person teams compete in a variety of zany office related, olympic style events. "We've added three new games to this year's Olympix - The competition and networking are always great," said Chris Munnely, a past Boston Technology Olympix team captain, and Games Chair of the 1995 Office Olympix Planning Committee.

Entertainment is provided by 100.7 WZLX Boston's Only Classic Rock, with hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar to round out the festivities.

Office Olympix is sponsored by Boston Federal Savings Bank, Boston Technology Inc., Commonwealth Financial Group, Hastings-Tapley Insurance Agency, Mullen and Company CPAs, Sawyer/Hughes, The Thomas Group, Tobin Corporation, and Toshiba.

Proceeds from Office Olympix support Easter Seal services for children and adults with disabilities. Services include home health care, physical and occupational therapy, speech therapy, swim programs, summer camp, stroke support groups, technology for independence, equipment loan and information and referral.

For more information on the event call Jania Andreotti, Easter Seal Office Olympix Coordinator at 617-482-3375.

Trahan School news

The following article was written by students of grade three at Tewksbury's Trahan School.

The third grade students at the Trahan School welcomed in the season of fall with the study of Johnny Appleseed. After reading about this American folk hero in the new reading series, the children enjoyed many followup activities. Each class examined, discussed and planted seeds. Several art projects were done including the making of "Apple" placemats and the discussion of the Technique of Apple art.

After viewing a film on Johnny Appleseed and other legendary heroes, the children were asked to create, write and illustrate a modern day tall tale.

All in all, it was an "apple" lutely wonderful time enjoyed by the "Pick of the Crop" (all third graders).

Now that the good weather has arrived we are all more active. There are a few things we need to remember in order to avoid injury: (1) Warm up exercises help prepare muscles for activity (2) Know your limitations - don't be a hero. If an injury should occur, remember this simple rule:
R - Rest - stop the activity immediately
I - Ice - cold packs will constrict blood vessels and control swelling
C - Compression - apply an ace bandage to the injured area
E - Elevate - raise the limb

GETTING FROM "FOR SALE" TO "SOLD!"

Although your Realtor is responsible for marketing your property, it requires a joint effort to get your home sold.

How can you empower your Realtor? First of all, it is very important that you feel absolutely confident that your agent is able to produce results - even miracles, no matter what the market is like in your area! It may sound strange, but it is important to let your Realtor know that you trust them to get the job done. Then you should support that trust by putting a realistic price tag on the property and keeping it in prime showing condition. Work out showing instructions that will make it easy for agents to preview or show your home, and meet periodically to discuss any feedback from buyers who have seen your home to determine how you can improve its appeal. And don't hesitate to share any ideas you may have about improving the marketing - we are into whatever works, and we have gotten some of our best ideas from our clients and customers.

For professional advice on buying or selling real estate, please drop by our office in The Starwood Building at 299 Main Street, or call us at 657-8444.

Wilmington Memorial Library notes

Long range plan

After nearly a year's sustained work envisioning and putting together a five year plan for the Memorial Library, the Long Range Planning Committee has finished its project which will serve as a guideline for the future. Among library needs identified were those of increased space and increased hours of operation. After its approval by the Board of Library Trustees, the 36 page document with 10 supplemental pages of appendix material was filed with the Board of Library Commissioners fulfilling a major requirement for funding eligibility for federal grant money.

On Wed., Oct. 11, the Library's Long Range Plan: 1995-2000 was presented to Town Manager Michael Cairn by Trustee Chair and Long Range Planning Committee member Martha Stevenson. Committee members Les White, Steven Leet, Sarah Rueter and Christina Stewart, Plan Coordinator as well as Trustee Vice-chair Anna Buzzell were at the presentation which took place in the library's Bicentennial Room. A copy of the plan is available at the Reference Desk in the library.

Time for Twos

The October session of Time for Twos, the library's drop in program for two year olds accompanied by an adult, will be held from 10:30 to 11 a.m., Monday, Oct. 23 in the library's conference room. For more information call the Children's Department, 658-2967.

Bookends

The November meeting of the library's book discussion group, Bookends will be held Thurs. evening, Nov. 2 in the conference room. November's book is Road from Coorain by Jill Ker Conway. Call the Circulation Dept. to reserve a copy.

November holidays

November is a month with two holidays which affect library hours. Please note the days on which the library will be closed. Thurs., Nov.

23, the library will be closed for Thanksgiving. Whenever a holiday falls on a Saturday, the library is closed Saturday and the day before. This year Veterans' Day falls on Saturday, Nov. 11. The library will be closed on Friday, Nov. 10. Many of the MVLC network libraries will also be closed. A list of neighboring libraries which may be open on Friday, Nov. 10 will be available later.

Jim Cain, of Fred F. Cain Chrysler / Plymouth was all smiles Tuesday as the first of the 160 new cars he has on order were delivered. The truckers strike is over and cars are being delivered to dealers. Cain said that 38 of the 160 cars coming in are already sold, leaving a wide selection for the tire kickers.

ARE YOU PROTECTED?

by Edward H. Wilkens

WAR SAFER THAN DRIVING

QUESTION: My friend claims that more people die on the highway than in war. Does this claim have any validity?

ANSWER: You can't argue with statistics. Casualties in all U.S. wars are out-numbered by casualties on American highways. Since the Revolution, a total of 1,186,654 Americans died in combat. The total includes casualties in the Revolutionary War, The War of 1812, the Mexican War, the Civil War, The Spanish-American War, World War I, World War II, Korea and Viet Nam. Since the advent of the automobile on American roads in 1900, over 2 million Americans have died in highway accidents.

MORE AMERICANS have been killed on the highway than in all wars combined.

Electric rates for winter announced

The Reading Municipal Light Department (RMLD) has reminded its customers in the four community service area that winter rates are in effect from October 1, 1995 through May 31, 1996. Winter rates are much lower than summer rates.

A residential customer who uses 500 kilowatt hours of electricity per month should experience a decrease of $6.59 per month during the winter rate period. Commercial customers who use an average of 4,000 kilowatt hours per month and have a 10kW demand should see a decrease of approximately $134.00.

According to RMLD Assistant General Manager Vin Cameron, the RMLD has a seasonal rate structure because the peak demand season occurs during the summer months. The peak demand during the summer months is 127 megawatts while winter usage is only 93 megawatts. The peak demand is due to the increased electrical usage from air conditioners, swimming pool filters, window fans and other appliance used during the warm weather.

Textron signs contract for new transmission fluid

Textron Specialty Materials (TSM) has announced that it has been awarded an exclusive multi-year life-of-part contract by a major North American automaker for AVCARB tm material, marking TSM's debut as a first tier supplier of the "Big Three." The multi-million dollar program will see pervasive use of the material in automatic transmissions.

AVCARB, a unique carbon friction material, will be used on new automatic transmission designs. TSM's AVCARB material will provide enhanced frictional performance resulting in significantly improved fuel economy, which is needed to exceed the Corporate Average Fuel Economy (CAFE) Standards. Transmissions with the new AVCARB product have been introduced in 1996 model year vehicles this month.

Textron has had a long history of developing highly engineered materials which enable systems and components to achieve new levels of performance. This new AVCARB carbon product replaces paper based friction materials, which have been used since automatic transmissions were adopted in the 1950s.

For the past few years, TSM has been marketing numerous engineered fibers and composites for use on next generation vehicles. "This contract solidifies Textron's position as a premier supplier of advanced materials to automotive OEMs," commented Bill Foulds, TSM's Director of Automotive & Friction Marketing. "Furthermore, TSM has made a significant capital investment in 1995 to install a large scale carbon processing line to support Detroit on this product," he explained. This technology is an outgrowth of TSM's development of friction materials which began a few years ago with AVCARB's use in high performance brake systems for racing and OE applications.

Senior Lisa Timulty displays her usual style of play of hustling and diving for every ball on the ground for the WHS volleyball team in their loss to Hamilton-Wenham held last Wednesday. (Photo by Steve Picano).

These guys are the only winning WHS team

by James Pote

It's a good thing that the parents of the WHS golf team members have been so supportive.

Last summer, the golf program was cut from the athletic budget. The parents then got together and set-up various fundraisers to keep the program going. They have raised every cent that goes into the program. Wilmington should thank those parents because without them, Wilmington would not have any teams with a winning record.

"If it weren't for these parents we would not be talking right now. All of them are such great people and to do what they have been doing is just unbelievable. It's really nice to see all of this extra effort by them," said head coach Al Fessenden.

For the past dozen or so years, the team has taken its lumps and bruises in the Merrimack Valley Conference. Now, in its first year in the Cape Ann League, the team has qualified for the state tournament for the first time in at least 12 years.

The Cats had a 7-5 record entering their final match-up of the regular season on Tuesday against Hamilton-Wenham at Wilmington's home course - the Hillview Country Club in North Reading. The plus-.500 record has earned them a berth in the state tournament, which starts Monday in Beverly.

"The kids have had a great season. I would love to get a win today to finish at 8-5," said Fessenden. "I'm really pleased with the progress of many of the players. We have just one senior on the team and we should be real respectable next year. Things are looking good."

And the entire team is chipping in. The team's top three players, Rob Torrani, Bill Dineen and Ryan Haubner, said that this year's team is more serious than last year's. They also said the fact that they don't have to match-up against a team like Andover, who ranked as one of the top teams in the country, helps out.

"Last year we weren't as serious or confident as we are this year," agreed the three of them.

"When the kids won the first match, they then realized what it took to win and what it is like to win," Fessenden said.

Torrani, the team's number one golfer, whose lowest score was a 36 against Newburyport, said that he has playing for eight years now. He also is a wrestler but he admitted that he likes golf better.

"I love playing golf. If I'm uptight about a bad test or something in school, I come out here and it totally relaxes me. It's great to be out- doors."

Torrani, a junior, said he takes "his big boy," or driver, out of his bag on the tees. He said the best part of his game is his driving. But, according to all three of them, driving doesn't win the matches.

"It's your putting game that wins. Everyone can drive - you need your short game and especially your put- ting game to win," said the lone sen- ior on the team, Bill Dineen, who is the team's number two golfer.

Dineen has also been a major contributor to the team. Torrani goes up against the other team's number one players and he sports a 7-3-2 overall record. Dineen, on the other hand, is 9-3 overall, which is best on the team. Haubner, a junior, the team's third player, is 7-5. Freshman Dave Senarian is next in line with six wins as a first year player.

"Dave has been a huge plus to our season," said the top three players. "He has really done well."

All three of the players have been real consistent throughout the season. Torrani's scores are: 43, 36, 37, 37, 43, 39, 42, 38, 41, 45, 40 and 39 which equals to a 40 average. He is second on the team with 16 match points, while also leading the team with five birdies.

Rich Gillis leads way for Cats second victory

by James Pote

On the strength of three Rich Gillis touchdowns, the Wilmington Wildcats football team crushed Amesbury, 36-8, through an off and on rain at Alumni Field in Wilmington Saturday. It was the team's second straight blowout and second Cape Ann League win.

Last week Billy Harrison carried the bulk of the load for the Cats. This week he again had a great game, which included two touchdowns and 96 yards on 15 carries, but the real story was fullback Rich Gillis.

Gillis carried the ball just twice for 22 yards while also catching just two of his younger brother Tim's passes for 84 yards. But two of those runs ended in the end zone (from 15 and 7 yards out) and one of the passes went for 71 yards and a third TD. Just touching the ball four times and getting three touchdowns and a total of 106 yards would probably assume that he will get the ball more in the near future.

"It was nice that we could get as many kids involved as we did," said head coach Gerry Sullivan. "Richie had a great game. He was making some punishing blocks - it's nice to have him as a threat to go with Billy and Sean [Kerrigan]."

Sullivan said before the Amesbury game that he wanted to get more players involved in his team's offense instead of relying so heavily on Harrison. Harrison still had a combined 110 yards, but Kerrigan ran for 64 yards along with Richie Gillis' afternoon. Instead of one player carrying the load, it must have been nice for Sullivan to have three different players to go to.

"We wanted to get Brian Carroll the ball more too, but we just couldn't. It's real nice to have that many threats. Sean is always good for a 5 to 15 yard carry and we need him to continue his play," Sullivan said.

The offense was a big part of the team's second win, but the defense once again came up big. In fact, they combined for five sacks for a total loss of 48 yards, while Jamie Campbell intercepted a pass at Wilmington's 3-yard line and chugged all the way down to the Indian 7. The 90-yard gain, however, was called all the way back to the Wilmington 15-yard line due to a block below the waist penalty.

Most of Wilmington's sacks came at big times in the game. Sean Kerrigan had two of the five and one of those came on Amesbury's first series. With a third-and-one call from the Amesbury 46-yard line, Kerrigan came in and sacked quarterback Carlton Anderson for a loss of 8 yards, forcing an Indian punt.

That play came after Wilmington scored on the first series of the game. After Campbell returned the ball for 19 yards, Tim Gillis hooked up with Rich on a 13-yard reception in the flat. Kerrigan followed with a 5-yard run, and Harrison followed that up with a 13-yard gain.

On first-and-ten from the Amesbury 25, Kerrigan gained 3 yards before Harrison busted for 22 yards down the right side of the field for a 6-0 lead. The extra point kick missed the uprights.

Wilmington's next series after the Kerrigan sack that forced Amesbury to punt recalled the fading disaster days of just a few weeks back. On fourth-and-ten from their own 32-yard line, Kerrigan was back to punt. Kerrigan fielded a low snap and turned to see two Amesbury defenders coming straight at him. Kerrigan started to run to his left and when the two Amesbury players started to tackle him, Kerrigan threw the ball away hoping it would be ruled an incomplete pass. But it wasn't and an Amesbury player picked up the ball and carried it for an additional seven yards to set up first-and-ten for Amesbury at the Wilmington 14-yard line.

Amesbury didn't take long to capitalize on the Wilmington blunder. Five plays later and Amesbury's Anderson ran in from a yard out. Amesbury completed a conversion pass to put Wilmington behind 8-6 seconds into the second quarter.

"We are still making mistakes but we are overcoming them and that is very important," Sullivan said.

Wilmington came back with a vengeance. Starting from the Amesbury 45 after a 20-yard kick return from Harrison, the junior running back gained eight yards on the next two plays to put Wilmington in very good field position.

Kerrigan continued the drive with a 3-yard gain to give the Cats their fourth of 14 first downs in the game. Tim Gillis followed with a 2-yard loss on a keeper play but he regained that with a completed

7-yard toss to Carroll to set-up third-and-seven from the Amesbury 34-yard line.

Harrison got the call on the next two plays and he gained 18 and 9 yards, respectively, to set up Rich Gillis' first touchdown, with five minutes and change left in the first half, a 7-yard run after he bumped into his brother Timmy on the hand-off.

Wilmington never looked back. The Wilmington defense then held Amesbury to just five plays and a gain of 14 yards before they coughed up the ball on downs. Wilmington took over from their own 44-yard line and it took them nine plays to put another eight points on the scoreboard.

Kerrigan and Harrison shared the load in that series, which also included a 6-yard pass completion to Josh Cormier. Harrison scored the touchdown on an 11-yard run that included two big blocks by Kerrigan and Rich Gillis.

Amesbury ended the half stuck on the Wilmington 12-yard line after four consecutive incomplete passes and the Cats took a 22-8 lead into the locker room.

Wilmington came out of their halftime chat on fire. Their defense held Amesbury to three-and-out and Wilmington took over and scored in just three plays, starting from the Amesbury 35-yard line after a 25-yard punt return from Harrison.

Kerrigan took the first two plays for gains of 13 and then 7 yards before Rich Gillis took the next hand-off and bolted 15 yards into the end zone, sprung by a block from Cormier.

The final tally for Wilmington came in the final quarter. This touchdown was arguably their prettiest of the year thus far and from what Sullivan said it was a mistake.

Less than three minutes into the final quarter, after Campbell's interception, Wilmington gained 14 yards on two hand-offs to Kerrigan. Sullivan then said all they wanted to do was to get a first down and not run up the score.

Boys soccer - win all three games or you're out

by James Pote

This past Thursday afternoon, the WHS boys soccer team was shut out for their fifth time this season, which only means they have to win their three remaining games to make it to the state tournament for the sixth time in the past seven years.

The team lost its eighth game (to five wins and two ties) to North Reading, 2-0. Once again, Wilmington had plenty of scoring opportunities and once again they couldn't capitalize on them. Now, they have to beat North Andover (a 2-1 loss the first time around), Masconomet (a 3-2 win) and Hamilton-Wenham (a 2-0 loss) to crack the state tourney field.

The past two years, Wilmington lost its state championship bids in the opening round of the tournament. In 1993, the team traveled to the Manning Bowl in Lynn and lost 1-0 to Lynn English. Last year, the team suffered a triple overtime shoot-out loss to Saugus, 1-0.

Prior to those games, Wilmington lost to North Reading in the state semi-finals in 1991. The year before that, they lost to Medway in the North Sectional Finals.

However, it will be a huge task to beat three of the better teams around in the Cape Ann, with two of them, North Andover and Hamilton-Wenham, having the best two records in the entire league.

"We will be facing three good teams. But, we played three good games against all of them. It will be tough [to get into the state tournament] but you never know," said head coach Dick Scanlon.

Scanlon was disappointed that his team lost to North Reading on Thursday. Scanlon acknowledged that North Reading was a good team, with ten wins under its belt, but he said he doesn't understand the lack of offense the team has produced.

"It's frustrating to see how many opportunities we have to put the ball in the net and we don't do it. You can't be shut out five or six times in a season and expect to be winning. It can't happen," said Scanlon.

With the team's lack of scoring, the defense tends to get more pressured. With senior tri-captain Doug Olander sitting out against North Reading, even more pressure was added on. The defensive game has been fine, it's the offense that could use a break or two.

In the first half of the game against North Reading, Wilmington was outshot 6-3. Steve Kosmidis' header saved an NR goal, while goaltender Darren Bishop made two big saves, with one of them a tip save on a 2-on-0 breakaway for NR. The other was when he came out 20 or so feet to smother the ball with a few Hornets around him.

After the scoreless first half, Wilmington came out on fire.

Dennis Ingram just missed two golden opportunities, with the first one a right shot that sailed inches over the net, and the second one a rebound shot from a Dan King footer, which went right back at the netminder.

Wilmington kept up the pressure when Kevin Kacamberas came streaking down the left wing, lost the ball, gained it back with hustle, turned around the defender going straight towards the net and fired a shot that just missed the far corner.

Just a minute-and-a-half after that threat, North Reading scored what would be the game-winning goal on a chip shot that Bishop challenged since his defensive partners were nowhere to be found. Bishop lost the challenge and NR went up 1-0.

Wilmington didn't give up. Dave Ward sent Dan King on a nice pass but the opposing goalie came out to tackle the ball and take away another big scoring chance for Wilmington. Meanwhile, Wilmington's Tom Heigham was playing his best brand of soccer, displaying tremendous hustle, great passing and tape-measure throw-ins. Scanlon said after the game he was very pleased with Heigham's efforts.

Steve Kosmidis has been a major reason why the boys soccer team has been so strong defensively the past two years. (Photo by Steve Picano).

During WHS boys soccer team's loss to North Reading last week, goaltender Darren Bishop received lots of help while North Reading was pressing. Scott Swieczynski is the player leaping for the ball going for the header, with Tom Heigham looking on with Chris DiJulia and Jeff Arciero in the background looking on to help out. Under 10 D soccer team blasting opponents

The Wilmington Under 10 D Team train roared through another stop on its express route Saturday with a 7-0 victory over host Somerville.

Goalkeepers Sean Wilson and Eric Ollila posted the shut-out giving Wilmington its fourth straight blanking and fifth in six years.

The game clock had barely started ticking when Wilmington's offense started clicking. Scott Sferazza took a pass from Mike Cavallaro off the kick-off and his shot found the back of Somerville's net.

An improved Somerville team forced Wilmington to work harder for its offense but the goals poured in none-the-less.

Kyle Patrie jumped on a loose ball to make it 2-0. Derek Concannon followed up a short time later, knocking home a rebound off a shot by Mark Giordano.

Concannon returned the favor and the ball with a nifty pass to Giordano who popped the ball into an open net.

A season of hard work on offense by Dana Zanni finally showed on the scoreboard. First Zanni fed Patrie who popped his second goal high into the Somerville net.

Zanni then took matters into his own hands. Swiping a loose ball from a gang of defenders, he beat the Somerville goalie for his first goal of the year and a 6-0 Wilmington lead at halftime.

While Wilmington's offense was flying, the defense kept Somerville from getting off the ground. Tim Kent, Zack Ungvarsky and Raymond Gravalles bottled up Somerville's forwards and sent their own forwards loose with strong lead passes.

Fresh out of the goal in the second half Wilson turned one of those passes into a score. Bolting past Somerville defenders he broke in alone on the net and teed up a rocket into the top corner.

Taking a cue from Wilmington's stingy defense, a proud Somerville squad stiffened its defense and turned back the scoring tide. Gravalles was robbed of a sure goal on a beautiful save.

Wilmington's record stands at 6-0 with a 43-1 scoring advantage over its opponents.

Girls under ten squad competes in tourney

The Wilmington girls under 10-A youth soccer team recently competed in the Pepperell Fall Soccer Tournament over Columbus Day weekend.

The girls won three impressive victories in the first round of the tournament but were knocked out with 1-0 loss to Winchester in the second round.

The team defeated Westford 6-0, Pepperell 5-0 and Chariho, R.I. 6-0. In the first round Ashley Steenbruggen led the Wildcats with five goals, Rachelle See added two goals and three assists, Shannon Fahey scored three goals and one assist, Allison Flynn had one goal and three assists and Jackie Spry netted three goals and one assist.

In the second round the girls dropped first loss of the season and the first goal scored against them in a tough battle against Windham.

The final showdown of the tournament game against Winchester, where the Wildcats lost a heartbreaker 1-0 and were knocked out of the finals. In the second round Lauren Cushing scored her first goal of the season and Lauren Rappolli added two goals and two assists.

Playing strong throughout the tournament were Kara Bruce and Katie Riley on defense. Lauren McDonald and Jackie Rideout were very strong in net and Caitlin McNabb was very strong at left wing. The girls now set their sights on finishing the regular season undefeated.

Mite C team is 'the team'

Although this is still the parity round, the Wilmington C youth hockey team is a squad to be reckoned with. Saturday the C team traveled to Everett to play a B team from Peabody.

Completely outplaying the opposition, the first period saw up and down action with hardly any whistles. Jason Randall's all out hustling gave Peabody defenders nightmares throughout the first, as he continuously got denied shot after shot. But at the 7:50 mark of the first period, star centerman Eric Ollilia broke the ice when he jammed in a rebound on a nice long shot by Stephen Emery.

Peabody tied it three minutes later on the first of three scored by Mike Bertolino. The second period began with wide open play at the 3:28 mark Peabody went up 2-1. The lead ballooned to 3-1 before, you guessed it, Eric "Two a Game" Ollilia made it 3-2, when he grabbed the loose puck went in and blew it by Peabody's net minder unassisted.

Mike Fay continues to be a buzz-saw, giving Peabody players fits. Keith Irwin, playing his second game since being called up, played solid positional hockey and was denied late in the third period. Chris Wainor and Chris Stafford's fore-checking as well as back-checking kept hopes alive. But a heart breaking goal, his third of the game, by Mike Bertolino at the 9:13 mark made it 4-2.

The third period also saw up and down action as goalie Jason Buckley's stand up style shut down Peabody's big guns as they threatened to score again. Jason held the fort and kept Wilmington in it. The defensive core of Schultes, Roberts, Fiorenza and Tucker are a big reason Wilmington goals against average is just under three a game. See you at 8:10 a.m. Saturday! Haverhill, there's a new team in town and we will be waiting...

Wilmington 4 Woburn 3

What a phenomenal game the Wilmington Mite hockey team played against the Woburn Tanners! A five star performance by Tim Anderson in goal lead the Wildcats to a well deserved victory. The entire team played a superior game so early in this 1995-96 season.

The Cats took the lead a minute and a half into the first period with a goal by Joey Pino. Woburn rose to the challenge and scored in the first, but George Dighton didn't like that tie and scored 30 seconds later.

In the second period, Woburn came back sizzling and scored twice to take the lead, but not for long. Scott Dunnett ended the second period with a superb goal assisted by David Griffin and Donny Heenan.

Going into the third period tied, the Cats' offense including Jay Surianello, Jimmy Fitzpatrick, Bryant Buck, Warren Fitzpatrick, Jamie Riopelle, Scott Sferazza, Joe Pino, Scott Dunnett, Bobby Sinopoli and David Griffin kept the pressure on until Bobby Sinopoli broke the tie assisted by defenseman Michael Welch.

Outstanding Cats' defense of Jennifer Corcoran, Donny Heenan, George Dighton, Scott Sferazza and Michael Welch kept the puck away from their net for the rest of the game to guarantee the win.

Agawam 7 Wilmington 3

Despite a valiant effort by the Wildcats, Agawam skated away with the victory. First period action saw Agawam take an early two goal lead. Soon after a pressing Michael Welch gained him the Cats' first goal assisted by Jamie Riopelle and Jay Surianello to bring the team back in stride.

Second period action took a dismal turn for Wilmington as Agawam tallied three goals. Back in the third Bobby Sinopoli scored to keep Wilmington in the game. Despite the efforts of the Cats' pressing forwards Jimmy Fitzpatrick, Scott Sferazza, Warren Fitzpatrick, Scott Dunnett, David Griffin, Jay Surianello, Michael Welch, Bobby Sinopoli and Bryant Buck, the Agawam goalie denied the locals of several scoring opportunities.

The Cats' defense of Donny Heenan, Jamie Riopelle, Joe Pino, Jennifer Corcoran and George Dighton tried to muscle the opponents' offense in the third period, but two more goals slipped by keeper Tim Anderson despite his efforts in net.

The never say die Mite B team kept the pressure on until the end. With just one second left in the game, Bobby Sinopoli pushed in another past the Agawam goalkeeper with an assist going to Donny Heenan.

Wilmington 4 Marblehead 2

Branden Marshall started Wilmington off early in the game with a nice goal, assisted by Brian Gillespie and Steve Pellerin to lead the Wilmington Squirt C youth hockey team.

Wilmington had a hard time after that with Marblehead making shots on the goal repeatedly. All of their shots were turned away nicely by Chris Soares who was having an awesome day in goal. Scott Rivers was able to clear the puck out of the zone to take some of the pressure off Chris.

Wilmington had a few more shots on the Marblehead goalie; however, Marblehead grabbed the puck, got through the defense and scored with two minutes remaining in the period.

In the second period, Marblehead came out strong to try to go ahead in the game. They were able to break the tie when the puck deflected off one of Wilmington's skates. Three minutes later, Steve Pellerin got the puck and scored, assisted by Brian Gillespie and Branden Marshall.

Wilmington came back on the ice for the final period as determined as ever. Many shots were fired on the Marblehead goalie. One of those shots rebounded and Richie Buckley tapped it in unassisted for the go-ahead goal in this game.

Wilmington was now winning with the score 3-2. As the clock ticked away, Marblehead pulled their goalie in an attempt to tie the score. On a pass from Eric Jacobs, Steve Pellerin broke through the Marblehead defense and was able to score on the open net to make the score 4-2 with six seconds remaining.

Strong defensive work by Tim Madden and Scott Rivers cut Marblehead's chances of scoring in this game. Tom Anderson, Keith Bernardo, Eddie Lopez and Michael O'Connor all put forth a great team effort for the offensive lines.

Wilmington also played in Pingree the week before and won 5-2 against Amesbury. Keep up the good work C's!!

He has parred 57 out of the possible 216 holes, which also leads the team. He has 36 bogeys, while leading the team with 171 medal points.

Dineen also has done real well in his final season. His scores have been: 43, 37, 46, 38, 40, 41, 46, 41, 44, 51, 45 and 42 for an average of 43. Haubner has had scores of: 42, 43, 46, 42, 43, 40, 41, 43, 41, 47, 42 and 42 for an average of 43 also.

But, it's not just these three players who have done well. Kurt Anderson, Peter Grasso, Senarian and Kevin Considine have all been in and out of the 40 range. Freshmen Shawn Haubner and Shaun Neville have each picked up a match win.

In a regular match, a team can only send eight golfers. Fessenden said he alternates the last few spots especially with an injury to junior Mike Wolley, who broke his hand while playing baseball. Wolley is expected to be back during the state tournament. But, Fessenden is not sure what his line-up will consist of the state tournament.

"Everyone has done so well that it's going to be a tough decision. You can only send six golfers to the states and I hope I can figure out the six [on Tuesday]," Fessenden said.

In the state tournament, every team sends their top six players. Each of those six are matched against the other teams' same ranked players in groups of fours.

The winner is determined by a team's combined score. The Wilmington players are all looking forward to the tournament even though they might be at a disadvantage since they have never played the Beverly course before.

"The course really doesn't matter. If it's a long course then you really have to have a good day with your drives. But, if it is a shorter and tighter course then you really have to do well in your short game," said Torrani.

All three of the top players agreed that Ipswich was the best course they have ever played on because the entire course is kept in tip-top condition. But, all of them also agreed that they like their home course, too.

"I like it here. It's a shorter course. It's one of the better public courses around," said Dineen, who also plays baseball. "I like it here, too - it's always nice and relaxing here," said Haubner, who also plays hockey and baseball.

To get to the tournament, Wilmington won seven of its 12 matches. They shut out Ipswich, 12-0, while beating Newburyport, North Reading, Hamilton-Wenham, Triton, Masconomet and Rockport.

"A golf coach doesn't show a kid how to golf, he helps them get better. The only way these kids can get better is to continue to work on their game. Most of them belong to clubs and that is a big plus. I think golf is finally starting to come around here," Fessenden said.

But, all of this success would never have happened without the support of the parents.

Langone sisters lead the way

Kara Langone scored twice as her sister Kristie Langone and Courtney Gilligan added goals of their own to lead the White Hackers over the Gray Ghosts in Wilmington Wildcat youth field hockey action this week.

The Ghosts kept this exciting match close on goals from Colleen Cahill. The Hackers also got great games from Ashley Biggens, Christina Downs, Robin Mainini, Kristen Semmler, Katie Sullivan, Krista Wolfe and Sarah Zimmerman.

Mary Grace Inglesse played the first half in goal and did an excellent job. The Gray Ghosts got terrific goal keeping from Marlene O'Rourke as well. Colleen Duggan assisted on both goals while Colleen Campbell assisted on the second one for the Ghosts. The Ghosts also got good performances from Laura Abbott, Katie Catanzano, Alicia Forester, Margo Hery, Stephanie Sprague and Anne Warford.

The next game saw the Blue Bandits defeat the Blue Bombers in another exciting game. The Bandits got goals from Maura Lynch, Katie Chisholm and Amanda Gustin. The Bombers score came off the stick of Kim Gillespie. The Bandits got a great performance from Shannon Cunningham in net, as well as strong play from Lauren Whitfield, Jacqueline Rubino, Janessa Mutchler, Brittany Lund, Sarah Hubbard, Kelly Gillis, Bethany Mutchler, Christina Desimone, and Christine DeMango.

The Bombers Player of the Game was Melissa Hanrahan who sparkled on defense in front of keeper Judy Weiner, who also played well. The Bombers got top notch games from Christine Carrozzo, Jill Cauldwell, Erin Doyle, Katie Holloway, Christine Johnson, Allison MacDonald, Molly Pidgeon, Kelly Torpey, and Andrea Tuttle.

Earlier action saw the Blue Blazers take on the Blue Bombers.

The Blazers got goals from Lauren Gearty, Kim Nadeau and Kristin Thomas. They got good games from Lauren Allaby, Aimee Coutu, Michelle Cronin, Jill Coutu, Lynne Gearty, Kelly McLaughlin, Lauren Olson, Allie Scifo, Kim Thomas and Kathleen Walsh.

For the Bombers, their top Player of the Game was Molly Pidgeon who played goal in the second half and held the Blazers scoreless.

The next game saw the Gray Ghosts and Blue Bandits go at it. The Ghosts got goals from Colleen Campbell and Stephanie Sprague with assists going to Marlene O'Rourke and Katie Catanzano. Shauna O'Donnell and Stephanie Sprague split the goal keeping and did a great job. Lori Vachon also played well for the Gray Ghosts.

The Bandits goals were scored by Christina Desimone, Amanda Gustin and Maura Lynch.

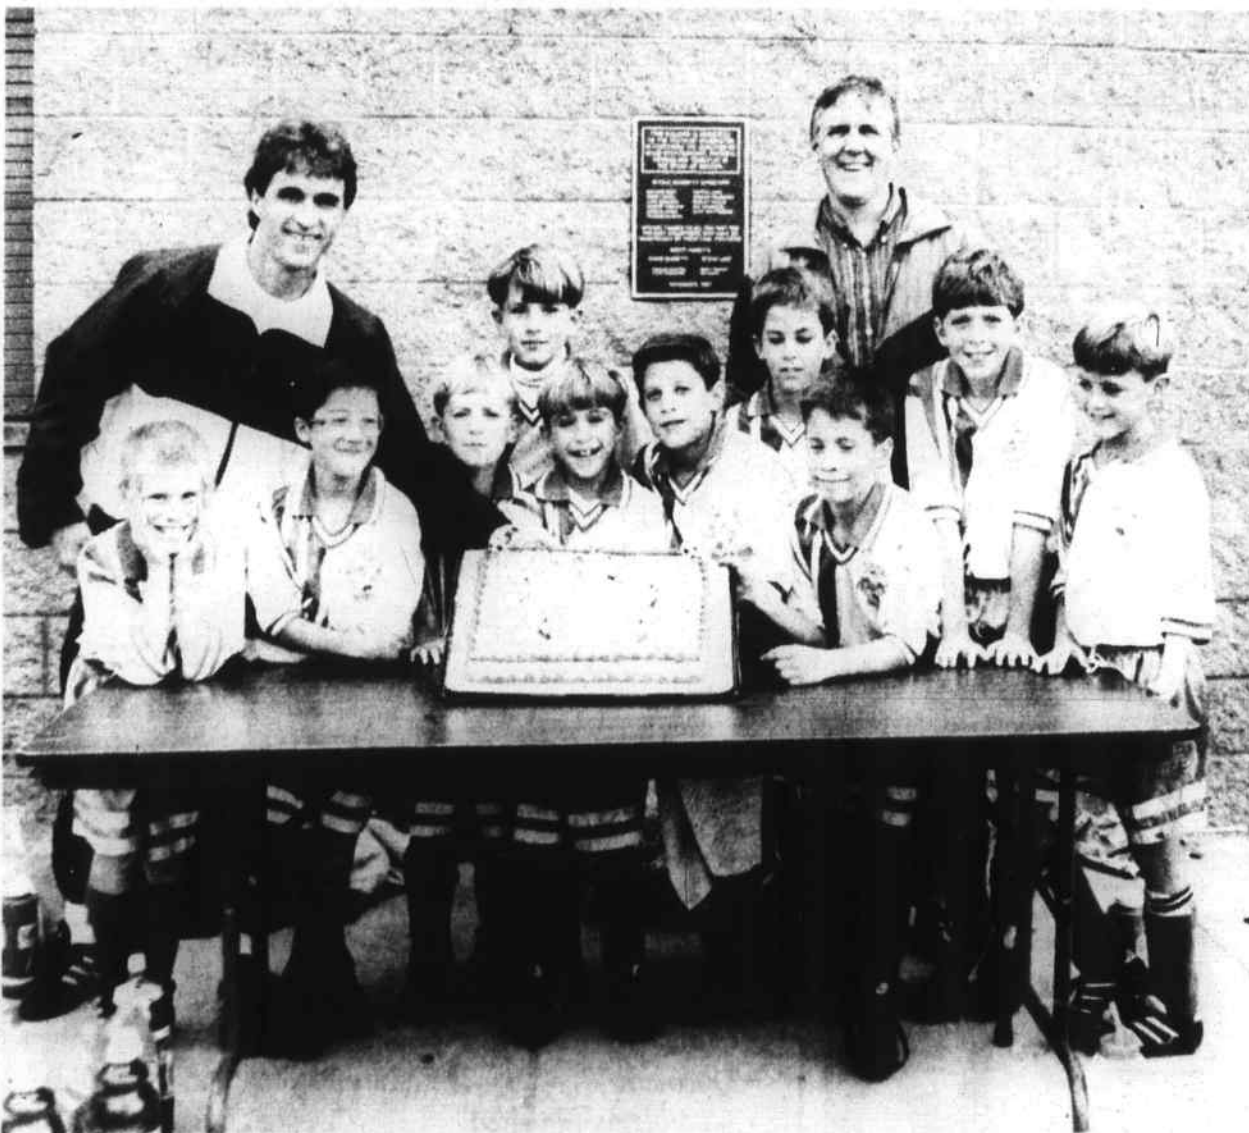

The last game saw the Green Machine take on the White Hackers.

The Green Machines goal was scored by Katelyn Sughrue. They also got great games from Christine Brogan, Kelly Cavanaugh, Katie Gillis, Kristin O'Roole, Erika Persson, Heather Roberts, Kristin Sauve, Kaleena Scamman, Leanne Shirley, Candace Sousa and Julie Swartwout.

The White Hackers got goals from Kara Langone and Courtney Gilligan.

Girls soccer team eliminated from tournament

by James Pote

For the first time in the past four years, the WHS girls soccer team will not be making a state tournament appearance. They were knocked out of any postseason plans on Monday afternoon when they lost to a very physical Masconomet squad, 2-1, at the Shawsheen School in Wilmington.

Having lost seven senior starters from her 1994 team, head coach Sue Hendee knew this year's squad would be young and inexperienced. Hendee said she wanted to make the tournament, but since it was a rebuilding year, making the tournament wasn't the team's first priority.

"I think the reason why we didn't make it was because of our inconsistency," Hendee said.

After Monday's loss, the team is sporting an overall 3-8-2 record. They have four games remaining on their schedule with North Andover, Tewksbury, Methuen and Hamilton - Wenham all to face.

If Wilmington had beaten the highly touted Masco, the road to the tournament would still have been a highly unlikely one, with North Andover, one of the best teams in the state, waiting in the wings.

Against Masco, Wilmington couldn't salvage any offense until about ten minutes remained in the game. Masco dominated the play for the first 70 minutes, outshooting Wilmington by a 16-3 margin. On this cold and windy afternoon, it just seemed as if Wilmington was getting beat to every ball.

Masco scored their two goals in the first half. The first one came on a beautiful move in which the opponent got the ball from a throw-in, shifted around a Wilmington defender and shot the ball into the top left-hand corner.

Minutes later, off another Masco throw-in, Nicole Dussault intercepted the pass and tried to boot the ball out of the zone. Her kick went off a Masco player's leg, struck the Wilmington left goal post, and then shifted to the right post, where a Masco player tipped the ball in for the eventual game-winner.

In the second half, Wilmington goalkeeper Elaine Bruno twisted her ankle and came out of the game after ten saves. She gave way to Melissa Mather, who made two saves in her brief time in net before Bruno came back into action.

Before Bruno vacated, she was helped out by defender Lindsay Bickford, who saved an apparent goal. Just prior to that, Bruno made a fantastic tip save on a blistering shot from about ten yards out on a break for Masco.

Hendee said she was very pleased with Bruno and Mather's performances in net, as well as those of Bickford, Kristin Flynn and Lisa Dellascio. Both Dellascio and Bickford had tough assignments in the game by being matched-up with bigger opponents who also happened to be two of the best players in the league. Neither player scored for Masco.

With ten minutes left in the game, Renée Vachon took one step closer to becoming the all-time scoring leader at WHS with a goal assisted by Dellascio on a throw-in.

Vachon now has 24 goals and 8 assists for 32 points in her four-year stint. She needs two more goals to break the goal scoring mark, while she needs seven points overall to break the all-time mark held by Erin McKenna.

Under 14 girls soccer team becomes champs

The Wilmington Girls U-14 A soccer team became the Division I Champions at the North Andover Columbus Day Soccer Tournament.

The team played five games in three days and won the championship on the ninth penalty kick after dueling a tough Andover squad through a scoreless game and two grueling scoreless overtimes.

The team played two games in the rain on Saturday. In the first game, they shut out the North Andover Jesters by a score of 2-0. The goals were scored by Nicole MacIver and Christie Ross.

In the second game against the 1995 state champion Wellesley Raiders, Meredith Cipriani and Lindsay Bruno scored to give the Wildcats a 2-0 victory. That victory was tempered by the fact that Karen Hardy was carried off the field with an injury which sidelined her for the rest of the tournament.

On Sunday, the team returned to North Andover for one game against the Andover Strikers. Lauren McCarthy scored the only goal of the game for Wilmington, which was later answered by the Andover team.

With the score tied at one, the game settled into a defensive battle and ended in a tie. The defense was keyed by the stellar play of sweeper Jen McNabb, stopper Jackie Ingram and guaranteed the Wildcats the top seed going into Monday's semifinals.

On Monday morning, the team played the Needham Hornets and got off to a slow start, giving up a goal at the end of the first half to trail by a 1-0 score at halftime. Early in the second half, Nicole MacIver blasted in her second goal of the tournament to tie the score and provide a spark for the entire team.

With Jen Koczen and Michelle Lemos playing tenacious defense and Lynn Hurley playing dual roles at forward and fullback, the Wildcats went on the attack and Sarah Lund put in the game winner late in the second half.

The team returned to the field in the afternoon for the final against the same Andover squad it had tied on Sunday, in what turned out to be a tremendous test of soccer skills and tenacity with neither team refusing to quit or be scored upon. As she had throughout the tournament, Captain, and Wilmington High School Varsity half-back, Lisa Dellascio, keyed a battle of midfielders, hustling on offense and coming back on defense to squash the offensive thrusts of Andover.

Liz Dorrance missed a direct kick by inches which would have won the game in regulation time. In the overtime periods, both teams tried valiantly, but failed to put the ball in the net to avoid a penalty kick shootout.

As the Wildcats prepared for the shootout, Coach Bob Paquin went on the field to talk to his players and select the first five shooters. With Andover shooting first, goalie Val Cwiekowski, who played all five games in goal, making some sensational saves along the way, deflected the first

Andover shot, but after all five players from both teams had shot, the score was tied at three, sending the shootout into sudden death. With the score still tied at three after eight players from each team had shot, Val Cwiekowski again deflected an Andover penalty kick.

As the tension among players and fans mounted, Alicia Paquin strode to the penalty line and calmly stroked the ball past the outstretched Andover goalie for the game winner, and was immediately mobbed by her victorious teammates.

This was the first tournament championship ever for the Wildcat team coached by Bob Paquin who has been instrumental in developing most of these girls' talents for at least the past six years.

After 14 games this fall, the team has given up only four goals, all in tournament play, and is undefeated and unscored upon in Division I Middlesex League play.

The final game of the fall season will be at Shawsheen Field, Wilmington October 28 at 9 a.m. against Lowell.

Wilmington High School girls varsity soccer goalie Elaine Bruno has had a fantastic season despite the team not doing that well. Here she comes out of the net to make a save with help from her teammate Jill Lojek who tries to clear out the opposition in the team's 2-1 loss to Masco on Monday afternoon at Shawsheen School. Fall youth soccer highlights as Bulls and Smokin' Guns battle

BOYS GRADE 1 BULLS VS SMOKIN GUNS

Stellar goaltending by Bulls' keepers Jason Evans and Jeff Nagle was ably supported by the solid field play of Dan Patterson and John Lipiello. Derek DeRosa and Josh Mayo both scored nifty goals. Smokin Guns scoring was handled by Greg, while keepers Sonny and Brendan deterred the opponents. Michael Stewart, Kevin McDonough and C.J. covered the midfield.

RIPTIDE VS MACHO MEN

Richard Pantano II blasted in an awesome goal for Riptide, while teammates Stephen Crowe, Timothy Forte and Sean Eagan moved the ball well. Shawn Fahey and James Savage were superlative goalkeepers. Chris Dancow set a punishing offensive pace, while fellow Macho Men player Scott Bransfield ripped up the midfield. Ryan Brander, Nathan Axelson and Steven Hughton booted in powerful goals. Steven and Chris did a great job sharing the netminding duties.

LEGION OF DOOM VS NATURAL DISASTER

Stand-up defense by Ben Barrasso and Patric McGarry held the backfield for the Legion of Doom. Great team work by the entire team, especially forwards Tom Coughlin and Kyle Borsetti, led to goals for Gregg Stewart, assisted by Patrick Ryan and Adam Levine. Natural Disaster played a fast paced game without any substitutes. Steven Shibilia was a standout at defense, in front of tough goals Matthew Patalano and Michael Pickett. Michael Laffarello popped in the team's score.

BRITISH BULLDOGS VS HULKAMANIACS

The actions and reactions of keepers Kenny Adams and Joshua Bodah kept the game close throughout. Excellent team effort was highlighted by the amazing play of Kyle Mendelson, Kenny Waite, Danny Metcalfe and Mike Wilson. The Hulkamaniacs played super soccer.

BUSHWACKERS VS POWER & GLORY

Pinpoint passing by Bushwacker Tom Marang enabled Jake Andrews, Richie Barry and Derek Hanson to tally goals. Chris Welch and Mark Walsh combined for a stinging defense, contributing to another fabulous team effort.

Power & Glory played a terrific game.

GIRLS GRADE 1

THORNS VS POISON IVY

The Thorns offensive thrust was led by the fast paced maneuvers of Amanda Stone, Stefanie Williams and Katelyn Bresnahan. Keepers Katelyn McFeeters and Michelle St. Aubin did a marvelous job, supported by the outstanding play of defender Erika Belsky. Goals by Caitlin Tuck, Danielle Robarge and Alicia Faulkner highlighted the Poison Ivy offense. Danielle Bamberg played well up and down field, while Krysten Augello provided solid netminding.

THISTLES VS HEMLOCKS

Sam Cummings' big boot, Kate Sullivan's hustle and Kim James' great overall play were the highlights of the Thistles' super teamwork. Kerri Stinson and Gabrielle Hauray, along with Ashley Bruno, did an excellent job sharing the keeper duties. The Hemlocks' improvement as a team is more evident each week, as demonstrated by the excellent offense of Jennifer Keating and fearless defense of Brittany Collins. Christina Luciano booted in the goals, supported by the fine field work of Emily O'Donoghue and Stephanie Seidman.

SNAPDRAGONS VS TIGER LILIES

The snappy pace set by forwards Alexa Siegel, Emily Clapp, and Monica Folk, created the opportunity for Brianne Bozzella's sharp goal for the Snapdragons. Keeper Katelyn McGrath made some tough saves, behind the tight defense of Kim Silvia. Great goalkeeping by Tiger Lilies goalies Brittany Schofield and Addie Solomon, supported by the stalwart defense of Lauren Heenan and Kimberly closed down the backfield. On offense, Shannell Courtois and Alana Lacey popped in scores.

BOYS GRADE 2

WOLVERINES VS HURRICANES

With Nicky Gustin and Nicholas Manent on guard in goal, and David Rousseaux providing awesome defense, the Wolverines shut down the defensive zone. Great positioning by William Sampson, super passing, and a fast paced forward line led to goals by Jeff Youngclaus and P.J. Russo. Chris Crosby and Daniel Kline were superb in net for the Hurricanes. Ben Mercier and Daniel Hall were offensive stars, while Dennis Fiumara had two breakaways.

TOWN OF WILMINGTON

PLANNING BOARD PUBLIC HEARING

In accordance with the provisions of M.G.L. Chapter 41, Section 81-T and 81-U, the Planning Board will hold a public hearing on November 7, 1995 at 8:00 p.m. or following the Finance Committee Public Hearing, in Room 9, Town Hall, 121 Glen Road, Wilmington, MA on the application of George Barnes whose address is 55 Sandalwood Circle, Tewksbury, MA 01876 for an amendment to the Definitive Subdivision Plan entitled: "Colonial Drive, A subdivision in Wilmington, MA, Definitive Subdivision Plan," Dated: March 1, 1995, and last revised August 28, 1995. Scale: as noted on individual maps, Engineer/Land Surveyor: Lakeview Engineering Associates, 1615 Shawheen Street, Tewksbury, MA 01876; located on Colonial Drive shown as Assessor's Map 65 Parcel 5B. The proposed amendment is to eliminate the detention basin as shown on the original plans and construct a detention facility under the roadway using an infiltrator system.

A copy of the plan is on file at the Planning and Conservation Department, and may be inspected during the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Any person interested, or wishing to be heard on the proposed plan, should appear at the time and place designated.

Richard A. Longo, Chair

011,18 Wilmington Planning Board

HUSKIES VS CRUSADERS

The Huskies scored from a beautiful throw-in by Michael Earls to Danny Tobin, who got by the defense to blast in the shot. Matthew Murphy played an awesome defensive game, breaking up several plays. Jonathan Kelly played great defense for the Crusaders. Mark Impeba's accurate passing and footwork, David Maison's tough forward attack and Bryan Raposa's strong shooting highlighted a tight game.

RUNNIN REBELS VS BUCKEYES

Sean Flynn, Brendon Gibson and Evan Guarino all played strong games for the Runnin Rebels. Goalies Sean McPherson and Jamie Ruggiero were superb in net. The Buckeyes played a fantastic team game, with great goaltending provided by Brad Goldblatt and Vic DiFava. In the offensive zone, Nathan Clapp, Stephen Towner, Jimmy Good and Matthew Phaup all booted in goals.

GIRLS GRADE 2

OPALS VS RUBIES

Katie Cello popped in outstanding goals for the Opals, and Jackie Mello added another off a rebound. Kim Gentile excelled at defense, while Cathy Sheerin, Dina Ferranti and Devin Giroux used speed and passing to control the game. Marvelous moves and tireless teamwork by Caitlin Harrington, Katie Bolger and Erin Magee culminated in a goal by Cassie Secher. Jennifer Comer and Alyssa Smith played superbly, both up and down field.

EMERALDS VS PEARLS

Battling to a scoreless tie, the Emeralds and the Pearls put on a display of excellent ball handling and exciting soccer. Caitlin Pozziziorko and Debbie Rooker tended net for the Emeralds, posting shutout games. Katelyn Kaufman and Maeghan Coyne had all the moves, playing fantastic soccer at both ends. Pearls' goalie Alyssa Bibeau cloaked the net with unbelievable plays, while Carla Ellis and Jackie Stokes shut down the defensive zone. Kathleen Strazzerre had some great breakaway tries and Christen Cox put some super offensive tactics into use.

GARNETS VS DIAMONDS

Garnets goalkeepers Sarah Gillis and Taylor Duffy made several amazing saves in net. Lauren Murphy sparkled on the Garnets' front line. The Diamonds played a running game at both ends, where Kerry Velloza, Krista Durkee and Leah Hudson blanketed the backfield. Charise Marchesi and Sara Rufo erupted in the offensive zone, leading to goals by Kelley Lemke and Mallory DeRosa.

BOYS GRADE 3

SEAHAWKS VS PATRIOTS

The Seahawks were all offense this week as Matt Jeanette, Scott Hanson and Joey Mayo each put the ball in the net. More pressure and relentless hustle resulted in additional scores by Bryan Little and Brenden Strem. Mike Thibault and Ryan Quigley hustled up and down field for the Patriots, while Ryan Daley did a fine job as goaltender. Matt Stewart, assisted by Joe Maurello, put the Patriots on the scoreboard.

CHARGERS VS 49ERS

Tight defense and stringent goaltending was the Chargers battle plan, well enacted by Matthew Hoag, Joseph Surianello and Daniel Reed. Fantastic plays by Christopher Murray and James Riopelle heightened the excitement. The 49ers responded with outstanding defense of their own, especially by Jason Axelson and David Blanton. George Carroll made some great saves in goal, while John DiPaolo bashed one home for the 49ers.

RAIDERS VS DOLPHINS

The Raiders put forth a super all-around effort, highlighted by Jack McDonough, Matt Clarkin and Tom Blaisdell on forward. In the backfield, Dan Farrell and Chris Periera were unbelievable. Anthony Hogan scored for the Dolphins, while Ryan Maguire, Devin Kelly and William Dunbar controlled midfield action. Rich Tuck and Michael Labrecque were outstanding at both ends.

GIRLS GRADE 3

AQUAMARINES VS SAPPHIRES

The Aquamarines gave its all, putting together some exciting offensive threats, particularly by Sam Brooks, Ashley McGrath and Kerri Porter. Alicia Braid was tough in the net, supported by some exceptionally fine defense by Lisa Gustafson and Sara Tang. Sarah McGowan's and Jen Stone's clears seemed to shoot blue fire as they both scored for the Sapphires, assisted by Laura Crawford and Stacey Giannakis. Amy McHale, Kristina Ghafari and Julia MacDougall held the opponents' offense in check.

MORTGAGEE'S NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Premises: 241 Kendall Road, Tewksbury, Massachusetts

By virtue and in execution of the Power of Sale contained in a certain mortgage given by Michael F. Wyshak and Diane M. Wyshak to Comfed Savings Bank dated December 27, 1988 and recorded with Middlesex County (Northern District) Registry of Deeds in Book 4767, Page 203, of which mortgage the undersigned is the present holder, for breach of the conditions of said mortgage and for the purpose of foreclosing the same will be sold at Public Auction at 10:00 A.M. on the 26th day of October, 1995 A.D. at or upon the mortgaged premises, 241 Kendall Road, Tewksbury, Massachusetts, as described below, being a portion of the premises described in said mortgage.

To wit:

A certain parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, situated in Tewksbury, Middlesex County, Massachusetts, and being shown as Lot 18A on a plan of land entitled "Plan of Land in Tewksbury, Mass. Scale 1"=100', July 8, 1969, Dana F. Perkins & Sons, Inc., Civil Engineers & Surveyors, Lowell & Reading, Mass."

which plan is recorded in Middlesex North District Registry of Deeds in Book of Plans 109, Plan 3B, and being bounded and described as follows:

WESTERLY by Kendall Road, as shown on said plan, 246.33 feet;

TOPAZ VS CORAL

Ellen Largenton scored for the Topaz, leading the offensive effort, while Ashley Robarge just missed a goal when she hit the post. Lynn Vasseur kept up the pressure with aggressive passing. Excellent defense from Emily Largenton and Amalia Aruda, as well as the super goaltending of Kaitlin Chakorian and Renee Waitt, kept the opponents at bay. The Corals played an extraordinary game in this exhausting short-handed effort. Forwards Lauren Cronan, Jen Bresnahan and Ashley Robar rushed time and again, applying relentless pressure. Goalies Julia Stein and Michaela Rousseaux stopped several hard shots behind the terrific field defense of Emily Olson.

COED GRADE 4 & 5

ROWDIES VS POWER SOURCE

The Rowdies were rough and ready for action in this tight match, as Ciara Ciaramella, Meredith Bransfield and Jared Hackett pursued the ball up and down field. Al Gentile scored on a blistering breakaway, while keeper Meghan Fudge, taking a shot to the face, stopped several hard boots. Power Source played a strong team game with good passing and tight defense. Chad Maderia had a great game, along with scoring powerhouse, Mike Robar.

CELTICS VS KNICKS

The Celtics burst out into a scoring frenzy, as Katie Marasco, Devin Boyle and Joe Downs booted the ball into the net for the Green. Patrick Schofield hustled throughout, Chris Hall excelled in net and Jacqueline Grady was the team's MVP. The Knicks answered the threat with extraordinary defense by James Little and Megan Hand, and amazing goaltending by Sheila Patterson and Dan Patalano. Ryan Jeanette's determined offense netted him a goal.

LAKERS VS FLASH

Mike Bell scored for the Lakers, as the impressive offense of Steven Iorio, Cindy Craig and Peter Brownell succeeded. Jessica Kelleher played unbeatable D, while goalie Shayne Gaffney was superb. Crisp passing led to goals by Flash' Chris Ruggiero, in this well matched game. Heather Travis and Dan Dilworth displayed spectacular field play in the offensive zone. Travers Peterson and Dan Cwikowski defended well, in front of the smart netminding of Daniel Travis.

TRAILBLAZERS VS NUGGETS

Kim Strazzerre, Kevin Hyde and Stephen Johnson combined for an awesome performance in the Trailblazers' net, supported by the solid defense of Athena Karalekas. A fired-up forward squad came out in the second half, "loaded for bear", and exploded in the offensive zone with goals by Jennifer Earls and Graham Pazdziorko. The Nuggets backfield was tightly controlled by the superlative work of keepers Jackie Martin and Danielli Pitman. In the forward zone, Jackie, Joel Guzinski and Stephanie Strazzerre lit up the scoreboard.

COED GRADE 6,7, & 8

ITALY VS BRAZIL

Italy dug itself a big hole before rallying with goals by Marc Sollazzo, Katie Hickey and Jason Hassey. Chris Dickie and C.J. Masci played super games in net. Brazil marched upfield with determination and skill which led to goals for Brian Martiniello, Mark Stewart and Pat Brassil, and two assists for Allison Crawford. Sarah Rappa at defense, and Brian Long in goal, teamed up for some fine backfield excitement.

USA VS ARGENTINA

Super up and down soccer by both teams resulted in a scoreless tie for these well matched opponents. Stephanie Winn, Sheri Tremblay and Justin Strem worked hard for USA, moving the ball well and holding off the opposition. John Tremblay and Eric Farrell added to the excellent teamwork, as Corey McCann was unbeatable in the net. Superb goaltending by Argentina's keeper Jason Manent shut out the opponents, supported by amazing defenders Nicole Silva, Billy McGarry and Kim Thibault. Justin Reidy and Eric Meixler pressed fearlessly into the offensive zone, but were denied in this fabulous match.

TRAVEL SOCCER NEWS GU10 - B

Midway through the season, the Wilmington Girls U10B team remains undefeated, besting Tewksbury on September 30. 3-1. Wilmington got off to a slow start when Tewksbury scored its only goal in the first ten minutes. With that the girls sprang to life, backed the opponents into a defensive posture, and shut down their scoring for the remainder of the game.

The offensive line of Andrea Athanassiou, Nicole Sauve and Teresa DeSimone were unstoppable, displaying excellent passing skills and opening up many scoring opportunities. In the first half, Teresa DeSimone booted in the first goal off a hot pass from Andrea Athanassiou. Two minutes later, Dawn DeRosa drilled in the second goal with a turnover off a Tewksbury penalty kick. Within minutes of the second half opening, the Wilmington girls posted their last goal, with Andrea Athanassiou punching in the ball off superb passing from Nicole Sauve and Teresa DeSimone.

Julia Leverone, on defense, played a key role in deterring Tewksbury. Special kudos to keeper Emily Dorrance, who made a spectacular diving stop in front of the goal.

Wilmington's GU10-D team played a very strong game to open the season on September 9th, winning 4-0 over Lincoln. Wilmington scored early and often in the first half. Katherine Chin scored the first two goals with some quick moves around Lincoln's defense. Kirsten Frizol scored next on a beautiful pass from Katherine Chin. Their final goal was a high, hard shot by Kelly Komenchuk. The GU10-D's defense was paced by two strong performances in goal by Meghan Flynn and Erin Cahill.

The D squad's second game on September 16, 1995 was a thriller to watch. Their Somerville opponents opened the scoring with a fast goal. Wilmington then tightened up on defense, with Distina DaSilva and Krystina Smith controlling the defensive zone. Wilmington was constantly on the attack with numerous shots on goal. Finally, with a few minutes remaining, Lisa Martiniello tied the score for Wilmington. Erin Cahill and Stephanie Ransdell were outstanding in goal.

For their third game, the GU10-D team travelled to Waltham, and played in a very tough defensive battle, but suffered their first loss of the season 0-1. It was a seesaw battle on the field with many offensive shots against Waltham. Katherine Chin, Erica Frizol and Stephanie Ransdell all came very close to scoring. On the Defensive side, Kirsten Frizol, Kelly Komenchuk and Meghan Flynn were very tough and stopped numerous scoring chances by Waltham. In the end, Waltham scored the lone goal of the game.

GU14 - C

The Wilmington GU14C team continued their winning streak as they beat North Reading 3-0 on September 30, and shut out Somerville 4-0 at home on October 6. At North Reading, Wilmington team captains Kim Gillespie and Erin McDonough led outstanding offensive plays, assisted by the fine passing techniques of midfielders Cheryl Kelly, Stephanie Sordillo and Laura Bradbury. Goalkeeper Lauren Duffy and defense players Lisa Dineen and Christina Downs were such powerful deterrents that North Reading was unable to score. Forwards Jessica Garbati, Courtney Gilligan and Jennifer McGowan scored the three winning goals.

1995 Middlesex East Awards for Excellence

Best Pizza: The entries roll in

By PHYLLIS NISSEN

"But this is the '90s," writes one cynic from Burlington. "You will probably give the award to someone who says 'pineapple pizza' ... or something like that."

"They load up the pizza dough with mushrooms, broccoli, peppers, tomatoes, black olives, eggplant, and spinach," writes one "veggie lover" from Reading.

"The service is quick and accurate," notes a reader from Wilmington, of a spot in North Reading.

It's barely week number three of the 1995 "M.E. Award for Excellence" Pizza Contest - best pizza and best pizza spots; and already the responses are amazing - as are the numbers. But don't let us tell you.

Let us show you. Readers from more than a dozen towns have selected almost two dozen types of pizza at 48 different locations in the Middlesex East area alone. It's only the beginning.

Check out the mail on Day One:

An alphabet sauce of adjectives.

"Crisp" ... "fresh" ... "goosey" ... "healthy" ... "oozey" ... "tasty."

Day Two:
A portrait of perfection.

"A delicious combination" ... "the way I like it every time" ... "the best" ... "the best anywhere."

Day Three:
A volume on 'values'.

"Old-fashioned" ... "plenty of toppings" ... "the largest" ... "the best and the cheapest" ... "the people are friendly."

You get the picture. It's time to get the pizza. And these are the rules.

The 1995 M.E. Award Pizza Contest works like this:

Every single ballot (look for this week's original) cast for your favorite kind of pizza and favorite pizza place makes you eligible for one of the following:

1) Every single vote cast makes you eligible for the grand prize of $100, in cash.

2) Every single vote for a favorite kind of pizza makes you eligible for the $50 pot - if you happened to vote for the kind of pizza which proves to be the favorite of all the M.E. readers who vote.

3) Almost the same deal - and another $50 prize - when you vote for your favorite pizza spot - if that spot is the one chosen by our judges based on our readers' top three choices.

New this contest is the oppor-

A parade of rescue dogs this Sunday

Yankee Golden Retriever Rescue, Inc., celebrating its tenth anniversary and the placement of more than 1700 "discarded" Golden Retrievers, will hold an Autumn Harvest Fair and Dog Walk Sunday, October 22, at the Lord Wakefield Hotel in Wakefield.

A Parade of Rescue dogs and their canine and human friends will walk around Lake Quannapowitt to kick off a $300,000 capital campaign to establish a permanent shelter for Golden Retrievers awaiting adoption.

Current Rescue Golden Retrievers will be walking to help future Rescue dogs as proceeds from the walk will go to build what the dogs will enjoy most, a large fenced in exercise area with an endless supply of tennis balls, a favorite toy of most Golden Retrievers.

At the conclusion of the walk, dogs and their owners will participate in a Harvest Fair on the grounds of the Lord Wakefield Rescue dogs S-7

ON GOLDEN PAWS, LUKE, 11 YEAR OLD RESCUE DOG #51 and one year old Jasmine, Rescue dog #1566, are energetically getting their owners in shape for the Yankee Golden Retriever Rescue Dog Walk "On Golden Paws," to be held Sunday, October 22 at Lake Quannapowitt in Wakefield. Luke's owner, Carmine Greco of Lincoln adopted Luke in 1986. Jasmine was adopted by Michelle Shumski of Saugus last spring. Proceeds from the walk will benefit the YGRR "Field of Golden Dreams" capital campaign, to establish the nation's first permanent shelter for Golden Retrievers.

What's new at the Stone Zoo

The flamingo exhibit at the Stone Zoo is the source of a lot of activity lately. The cause of excitement isn't the flamingoes themselves, it's what they're sitting on: eggs.

Stone Zoo is conducting a flamingo breeding program to help secure the future of this threatened species. Two have hatched already and there's more on the way. There are seven more eggs, incubation of which is shared by the parents. Keeping a close eye on the program are keepers and interns who can often be seen rooted in front of the flamingo exhibit recording the daily activity of the inhabitants.

Stone Zoo initiated the program in 1994. The flamingos at the zoo only began laying eggs last year.

There are two probable reasons for this lack of reproduction. First, many zoos attempting to breed flamingos find that they do not breed successfully in flocks of fewer than 20 birds. Within the past few years, the zoo has increased its flock to 22 birds in the hope of stimulating breeding.

Second, the flamingos were subjected to seasonal relocation, spending their summers outside in their own exhibit and winters in the aviary. Moving them around seemed to be too disruptive to the sensitive flamingos.

So last year, after careful acclimation to the weather, the flamingos stayed in their own exhibit through the winter.

The changes have apparently made a big difference. Last year for the first time, the flamingos laid eggs, one fertile and two infertile. The fertile egg did not hatch. This year a total of 19 eggs were laid. Ten were either lost or removed because they were infertile. Of the remaining nine, the first hatched on Sunday, July 23rd, with the second hatching a short time later.

This is the first time flamingos have been born at either Franklin Park or Stone Zoo! Stop by and take a look at the new babies.

In other zoo news, a new exhibit is opening on the right side of the mammal house, not far from the flamingos. The zoo's fruit bats are gradually being introduced to their display area. In the beginning, the glass will be covered with tape and paper, not to frustrate the visitors, but to keep the bats from hurting themselves by flying into it. The covering will be removed gradually.

There are seven differences in the second picture. Can you spot them?

Holistic approach to good health course offered

Winter is coming and with the cold weather approaching we need to take good care of ourselves so that we do not get sick. After all, this is flu season. Winchester Hospital presents a holistic approach to the immune system on Wednesday, October 25 from 7-9 pm at the Winchester Hospital Family Medical Center, 500 Salem Street, Wilmington.

Janet K. Beaty, N.D., Naturopathic Physician, will be speaking at the presentation. She will discuss the influence of nutrition and lifestyle on the immune function, and give practical suggestions on how to have a healthier winter season.

This presentation is free and open to the public. Pre-registration is required, however, so please call the Community Health Institute at 617-756-2220.

Nazareth Open House

Our Lady of Nazareth Academy in Wakefield will hold open houses for prospective students on Thursday, October 26 from 6:30 to 8:30 pm and on Saturday, October 28th from 1:30 to 4:30 pm.

The open houses provide junior high and middle school students and their parents an opportunity to view the campus and meet members of the Nazareth community. Prospective transfer students are also welcome.

Nazareth students will greet visitors and guide them on narrated tours of the campus. In each classroom, a student or parents of current students will make brief presentations on various aspects of curriculum or student life. Faculty will also be present to answer questions regarding curriculum.

Nazareth Principal Molly Kelley, Director of Admissions

David Dooley and Director of Guidance Julie Dempsey will be available throughout both open houses to answer questions. "These days are extremely informative, allowing us to personally address the concerns of any guest," says OLN Principal Molly Kelley.

Concert choir members will present mini-concerts for those students interested in Nazareth's strong performing arts program. Dr. Patricia Capone Tamagini of Wakefield will answer questions about the music program, including private and semi-private voice and instrument lessons. Dr. Tamagini, a Nazareth graduate, also directs the drama club and has been teaching at Nazareth since 1981.

OLN Athletic Director Michelle Carson will be on hand to explain the sports program and answer questions about the volleyball, soccer, basketball, cheerleading, softball, and tennis teams.

Several OLN graduates will talk about their college experiences and how Nazareth prepared them for higher education.

During each tour, special sessions - "For Parents by Parents" and "For Students by Students" - will be held, giving prospective parents the opportunity to meet with present OLN parents while prospective students meet with current students. "We have a number of parents interested in informally sharing their reasons for choosing Nazareth Academy for their daughters. These parents' concerns are very different from their daughters' concerns," says Director of Admissions David Dooley.

NOT ALL HIGH SCHOOLS ARE CREATED EQUAL ... FOR GIRLS.

"The educational system is not meeting girls' needs. Girls and boys enter school roughly equal in measured ability. Twelve years later, girls have fallen behind their male classmates in key areas such as math and science, confidence, and self esteem. Girls are one-half of our future. We must move them from the sidelines to the center of the educational reform debate."

50th Anniversary Community Concerts

Everything from big band sounds and jazz to musical comedy are on tap for The Greater Stoneham Community Concert Association's 50th year celebration.

The Association will usher in this season with none other than The Greater Bostonians, a 50 member chorus and orchestra of area musicians, one of the finest musical groups in Massachusetts. Their concert, at 3 on October 22, in Stoneham High School Auditorium will feature sounds from the big band era, show tunes, and contemporary pieces.

This group has a long standing heritage of outstanding talent. The late Bob Cheyne, a former Vice President in the Red Sox organization formed this group of high school musician all stars back in 1969 to raise money primarily for the Jimmy Fund. Then, close to thirty years later, in 1991, the group got back together with many of its original members.

The current conductor and music director, Ed Madden, is a renowned area composer, arranger, conductor, and trombonist. The chorus director, Carol Abel has performed the lead in many area musical productions and teaches music in the Westwood school system. The host, Ken Coleman, is a nationally known sportscaster and was the former "Voice of the Red Sox."

The slate for the coming year also includes an evening with the internationally known piano duo, Markham & Broadway, and Dale Gonyea, a comedian pianist. Markham & Broadway, who play everything from Saint-Saens' "Carnival of the Animals" to music by Bach and Vaughn Williams, are known for their technical mastery, imagination, and ensemble.

Dale Gonyea, a comedian pianist who has been acclaimed as Victor Borge's heir, has won numerous awards, including an Emmy. He has written for, among others, Disney, Bette Midler and Ray Stevens and has played on the Andy Williams show and at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas.

This season will culminate with a performance by The Black Eagle Jazz Band, whose repertoire spans the entire spectrum of New Orleans music.

It's not too late to get a $30 subscription for the upcoming celebration, which includes all four concerts. For more information about subscribing, contact Lola Freeman, 617-438-0835; Stephanie Maughan, 617-932-9989; Nancy Leavitt, 617-944-5262; or Lillian Lawler, 508-658-2125 or Kathleen Bray at 617-438-7961.

Reading Art Exhibit and Sale October 20th

Judges have been selected for Reading Art Exhibit and Sale including Samuel Vokey, Joan Rademacher and Giles LaRoche as judges for their Fall Art Exhibit and Sale which is scheduled for Friday, October 20, 7:30 to 9:30 pm and Saturday, October 21, 11 am to 4 pm.

The location is The First Congregational Church, 40 Sanborn Street in Reading.

Samuel Vokey, who graduated from Bowdoin College, Maine, received his classical training from Atelier Cormier in Boston. He recently completed a five year scholarship program at R.H. Ives Gammell Studio in Boston.

He is a member of The Copley Society of Boston and The Concord Art Association where he had solo shows; Alfred J. Walker Fine Art, Boston; The Munson Gallery, Chatham; The Chatham Art Association and the Duxbury Art Association.

Joan Rademacher is a graduate of the Art Institute of Boston and worked as an illustrator. A class in watercolor painting led her to a life long romance with that medium. Workshops with nationally known artists Betty Lou Schlemm, David Millard, and Ferdinand Petrie inspired her to further continue on this path.

Giles LaRoche, artist and illustrator, is a graduate of the Montserrat College of Art where he now teaches children's art classes. His illustrations for children's books which include Lois Lenski's Sing a Song of People and Rachel Field's General Store and A Road Might Lead to Anywhere are widely known.

The members of the Reading Art Association take great pride in the quality of work submitted for this show. The public is cordially invited to this exhibit and sale.

Haunted House in Burlington

The ghouls will take over management of the Park Playhouse once again as the Winnemere Family Theater (WFT) presents its 14th annual Haunted House October 28 & 29 from 12-6 pm.

The Park Playhouse is located on Edgemere Avenue, off Winn Street. Admission is $2 and discounts are available for groups of 10 or more. For more information call 272-2524.

Each year the teen members of WFT transform the Playhouse into "Overlook Manor," a dark, decrepit home to all the things that go bump and boo in the night. Over 40 teens and adults will lurk inside and outside, providing thrills and chills for men, women and children of all ages.

The Haunted House is the primary fundraiser for Winnemere Family Theater, open to those in grade eight and up who want to learn all aspects of theater.

Following the Haunted House, WFT will present stage productions in January and June. Past shows include "Grease," "Babes in Toyland," "Adventures of Santa Claus," "Winners," "Just a High School Play," "Double Dose," "Babes in Arms," "Utter Glory of Morrissey Hall" and "Voices from the High School."

About The Towns by Phyllis Nissen

Congratulations, Richard!

'Starting my second hundredth'

Having just celebrated his 100th birthday, Richard Hardwick of Malden remains a ham ... radio operator, accomplished organist and pianist, and avid fisherman ... for shore.

Born and raised in Malden, Hardwick graduated from Malden High School and M.I.T., married Beatrice Thompson of Malden, and moved to Melrose. He was a New York stockbroker; chairman of the board of the First National Bank of Malden for 40 years; master of two masonic lodges; and for 25 years, the owner and operator Hardwick's, an "exclusive women's apparel shop" in Malden.

Feted by friends and relatives from Texas, Florida, Maine, New Jersey, Maryland, and New Hampshire as well as Winchester, Melrose, Malden, and more, Hardwick had this to say about the recent festivities, according to the "Daily News Mercury": "I'm starting my second hundredth."

'Anne Frank' in Reading

The award-winning Reading High Drama Club will perform the award-winning "The Diary of Anne Frank" - 'a portrait of adolescence' directed by Bill Endslo - Thursday, October 19th through Saturday, the 21st at 8 p.m. at Reading High School, 62 Oakland Road. Tickets are $6 per person and available at the door or by calling (617)944-8200 ext. 18.

Interactive cable in Wakefield

Wakefield residents have been invited to a public hearing on cable television, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Wakefield High lecture hall, this Thursday, October 19th.

"This important public hearing," read the ad in the Wakefield edition of the "Daily Times Chronicle," offers residents of Wakefield a valuable opportunity to formally express their views and opinions concerning the cable television services residents are now receiving and on the services they would like to receive in the future."

Emergency

Meg Perry of Ipswich, an all-A high school student who teaches swimming to young children at the local YMCA, "would dearly love to have a future."

After discovering in June that she has a pre-cancerous type of leukemia, she has written a letter urging those of Korean heritage to be tested by their own physicians or at local hospitals: she needs a bone marrow transplant from someone of Korean descent.

Meg Perry is adopted - and the National Bone Marrow Bank has "very, very few" Korean donors.

Northshore families with adopted children of Korean heritage are hoping to establish a "bone marrow day" and need to contact groups of Korean people

$20K for community policing

The Town of Tewksbury has been awarded $20,000 for community policing, part of $12.04 million in community policing grants which have gone to 240 cities and towns.

The money will be used to help local police departments fund neighborhood crime watches, an increased police presence in neighborhoods, and additional crime-fighting programs designed to result in close working relationships between the police and the community.

The goals, according to Senator John O'Brien, are safety in neighborhoods, the reduction of crime, and an improvement in the quality of life for everyone; and, according to Representative James Miceli (D-Wilmington), the police department's establishment of "a strong visible presence in Tewksbury."

BUILD YOUR OWN SNOWSHOES WORKSHOP

Build a handsome pair of snowshoes for yourself or as a gift in this three-part workshop being offered at Massachusetts Audubon Society's Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary in Topsfield on Wednesdays, November 1, 8 & 15, from 7-9 pm.

Choose from two styles: Ojibwa (elongated, with up-turned toes; allows a natural gait while the long tail keeps the shoes tracking straight) or Green Mountain Bearpaw (more compact; rounded at both ends with a slightly uplifted toe; ideal in thick brush and on steep slopes). Audubon supplies the frames (pre-bent, riveted and sanded), lacing, bindings, and full instruction. Participants will need to spend time between classes working on their snowshoes at home.

Registration Deadline is Friday, October 20. Limited to 12. FEE: $152 ($127 Mass Audubon members). For more information call the Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary at (508)887-9264.

MELROSE VISITING NURSES "WELLNESS CHECK"

"Wellness Check" - more than a blood pressure check, by Melrose area Visiting Nurse Service, moves to 3rd Friday every month, 9 am, starting October 20, at Saugus Senior Center. Free. AWS focuses on health in terms of wellness, how comfortably people can perform certain activities of daily living and how well they feel.

AWS also encourages people to ask questions about their health and well being of its registered nurse(s), and provides information on pertinent topics. Podiatry services are provided in conjunction with AWS by podiatrist Matthew Schwartz. MVNS developed its Adult Wellness Program to encourage people to take a more active role in their own health and well being.

Please call the Saugus council on Aging, 231-4178, in advance, so MVNS can best staff the service to meet the demand.

The Melrose visiting Nurse Service, which cares for people at home in more than 10 area communities, including Saugus, is headquartered in Melrose, at 50 Tremont Street.

CREATIVE ARTS GALA AUCTION OCTOBER 21

On Saturday, October 21st, the Creative Arts Gala Auction will be held from 7:30 to 11 pm at Meadowbrook Country Club in Reading. Cocktails and live music by the Creative Arts Jazz Trio will accompany the preview from 7:30 to 8:30 after which the bidding will begin.

There is something for everyone, including weekend getaways at the Red Lion Inn in Stockbridge and Foxwoods in Connecticut, dinner on the Odyssey, a signed Bruins hockey stick and Celtics basketball, tickets to the Boston Pops, a painting by local artist Judythe Evans Meagher, a pastel portrait by Beth Anderson, tickets to Nick's Comedy Stop, the North Shore Music Theatre, Wheelock Family Theatre and Le Grand David, dance lessons at Arthur Murray, architectural consultation with Nancy Twomey, passes to the Children's Museum, Rollerworld, Discovery Zone, the Aquarium, and much, much more.

Tickets are $10 per person. To purchase a ticket come to the Creative Arts Office, located in the First Congregational Church in Reading or call 617-942-0538 for more information.

"WELLNESS CHECKS" ON 3RD FRIDAY

To better meet the needs of area seniors, the Melrose area Visiting Nurse Service will move its Adult Wellness Service at the Saugus Senior Center to the third Friday each month, at 9 am, starting October 20.

More than a blood pressure check, the Adult Wellness Service focuses on health in terms of wellness - how comfortably people can perform certain activities of daily living and how well they feel. AWS also encourages seniors to ask questions about their health and well being of its registered nurse(s), and provides information on pertinent topics.

Podiatry services are provided in conjunction with AWS by podiatrist Matthew Schwartz.

MVNS developed its Adult Wellness Program to encourage people to take a more active role in their own health and well being. Bring any questions you have about your health, medications, etc., or topics you'd like to see addressed at AWS, to the next Adult Wellness Service.

The Melrose Visiting Nurse Service, which cares for people in more than 100 area communities, including Saugus, is headquartered in Melrose, at 50 Tremont Street.

POLITICAL HISTORY OF MASSACHUSETTS

On Saturday October 21, from 9:30 am to 3 pm, the Kennedy Library and the Institute for Massachusetts Studies, will sponsor A Symposium on the Political History of Massachusetts.

The forum is free and open to the public. Reservations are recommended and can be made by calling 617-929-4571. A potpourri of topics related to politics in Massachusetts will be discussed.

FREE PROSTATE CANCER SCREENING

Prostate cancer is the third leading cause of cancer deaths in men. Early detection and treatment of prostate cancer is the key to saving lives. The American Cancer Society recommends that all men over the age of 40 have an annual rectal exam.

On Wednesday, October 25th, from 5-7pm, physicians of The Malden Hospital will conduct private, confidential prostate cancer examinations. The screenings are offered at no cost, however, registration is required. Please call 617-397-6000 to register or for more information.

This screening is provided as a community service and is part of the The Malden Hospital's Health Matters Program.

MOTHERS OF TWINS CLUB MEETING

The North Shore Suburban Mother of Twins Club will be holding their monthly general meeting on Tuesday, October 24, at 7:30 pm at the Saugus YMCA, 298 Main Street, Saugus. Bring a past favorite Christmas idea or gift to share.

The Mother of Twins Club is a Nationally based organization whose focus is to provide support and encouragement to all mothers, expectant mothers, and grandmothers of multiple birth children.

The monthly cope meetings and general meetings give mothers an opportunity to share ideas, stories, equipment and clothing, as well as some fun. All new and expectant mothers are invited to attend these meetings.

Please call Silvana Smith 508-664-6831 or Lori Branscomb 508-532-2647 for more information.

PUBLIC INVITED TO
FREE CONCERT

On Friday evening, October 20th at 8 pm as part of Parents' Weekend, the Phillips Academy Music Department will present a concert featuring the Phillips Academy Symphony, the Phillips Academy Chamber Orchestra, the Amadeus Ensemble, and the Corelli Society. This concert will take place in Cochran Chapel located on the school campus.

As one of its selections the Phillips Academy Symphony will play the first movement of Vieuxtemps Violin Concerto No. 5 featuring student soloist Sara Akerman, PA '96 of Andover, MA. A member of the PA Symphony, Chamber Orchestra, and the Chamber Music Society, Akerman studies violin with music faculty member Michael Rosenbloom.

The Phillips Academy Chamber Orchestra will feature the J.S. Bach Concerto in d minor, BWV 1052 with PA senior Paul Berry of Rochester, New York as piano soloist. A participant in the Phillips Academy Chorus, Cantata Choir, Fedelio Society, and Chapel Quartet, Berry studies piano with PA faculty member Peter Warsaw. The Chamber Orchestra is under the direction of William Thomas.

The Amadeus Society, under the direction of Mark Smith, will play the Bartok Dances of Transylvania; the Corelli Society under the direction of Elizabeth Aureden will play the Mozart Quartet in G Major, K 80.

DON BOSCO HIGH
OPEN HOUSE

Members of the class of 2000 are invited to attend the Open House of Don Bosco School of Technology to be held on Saturday, October 21, from 10 am to 3 pm.

In addition, 7th grade students, who will be the first graduates of the 21st century in 2001, as well as 6th graders of the Class of 2002, are also invited. The families of all will also be welcomed.

The parents' club will hold its 14th annual Craft Fair on the same day at the same hours. Free and open to the public, it will feature 40 crafter tables and wood items made by students, games and many other activities.

At the Open House, the 6th, 7th and 8th graders will meet David Murray, director of admissions, faculty, administrators and students who will answer questions on the curriculum and conduct tours of the entire school, including visits to the six technologies: Cabinet-making, Construction Technology, Drafting and Design, Electricity, Electronics and Science Tech.

For more information on the Open House and Craft Fair, Call 617-426-9457.

The school, located at 300 Tremont Street, in Boston, is also convenient to the New England Medical Center station of the MBTA.

COURSE FOR HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS

Boston Regional Medical Center (BRMC) will offer a CPR course designed for nurses, nursing students, doctors, dentists, EMT's and other health care providers.

The two part course will be given on Monday, October 23 and 30, from 5:30 to 9:30 pm. Participants observe correct techniques and practice on training mannequins.

Those that successfully complete this class receive a one year CPR Course Completion Card from the American Heart Association.

CPR classes are offered each month at Boston Regional Medical Center. For more information or to register for these classes call the Health Promotion Department at 617-979-7057.

School Notes

Tewksbury boasts
a 'Wynn'er

This season's 'honors' go to Dr. Rick Hawkins, principal of Tewksbury's Wynn Middle School, on his selection as one of 46 principals - nationwide - to take part in the Annenberg Institute of School Reform Principals' Institute. Hawkins will represent the state of Massachusetts at Brown University's institute headquarters.

'If he thinks he's busy now...'

This year's "School Notes" 'welcome' goes to Reading Coolidge Middle School Principal John Doherty of Wilmington and North Reading, who could - by the way - well be the youngest principal in the area.

Seventh grader Megan Perry makes the introductions: "As many of you probably know, we now have a new principal," she writes, as part of the writing workshop in which she's participating at Coolidge. "He has been part of the Coolidge staff for nine years. Before he became a member of the Coolidge staff, he taught at Austin Prep for four years. As part of Mr. Doherty's teaching experience, he has taken the seventh grade to Prindle Pond for the last five years. Mr. Doherty was head of the science department before he took over the responsibilities of principal."

"Mr. Doherty attended the University of Lowell. He received a bachelor's degree in biology and a master's degree in education."

"Mr. Doherty has come up with many beneficial ideas to make CMS a better environment for all of the students. He intends to increase communications with parents and students as well. Mr. Doherty also felt he could help kids better being in this position of principal."

A phone call that could change his life forever

"Have you ever been waiting for a phone call that could change your life forever? Well, Mr. Doherty definitely fits this description. He will soon be adopting a child. The phone call is very significant - the agency will tell him his baby has arrived. If he thinks he's busy now, just wait until that baby arrives!"

'I am really going to like it here'

This month's 'welcome back' goes to Molly Kelley of Melrose, who likes to whittle and has just begun her second year as the principal of Our Lady of Nazareth Academy in Wakefield.

"In the beginning of every school year, we experience new things and meet new people," wrote current senior Anita DiMarco of Malden, last year, in Nazareth's "Plaid Flash."

"This year, we met Mrs. Kelley, our new principal. Born Mary Elizabeth, Mrs. Kelley was called Molly from the start. She attended St. Joseph's in Somerville from first grade through high school. From there, she went to Boston College, where she majored in English and education. When she graduated, she went back to St. Joseph's but this time as a teacher. Later Mrs. Kelley taught in public schools before taking time off to stay home with her two boys, Michael and Peter. Mrs. Kelley came to us from St. Mary's in Lynn.

"In her free time, Mrs. Kelley likes to read and cook. She also loves to whittle or carve wood. Next time you go to visit Mrs. Kelley, on good circumstances of course, look on her shelf and you will see one of her creations, a wooden Santa Claus. She is really excited about being here."

"I am really going to like it here," Mrs. Kelley said...."

Point,
counterpoint

This week's 'cheers' go to the newly elected officers of the Burlington High debate team: Tim Correia, president; Patricia Moy, vice president; Sameer Dhond, treasurer; and Marcia Botros, secretary. And many points go to team advisor Mrs. Brown.

Congratulations,
Ellen!

Today's 'congratulations' go to Ellen Messing, the Winchester Public Library's assistant children's librarian - on her recent retirement.

If you'd like to read about your favorite school, student or teacher in "School Notes," please send school newsletters and other relevant information to Phyllis Nissen, "School Notes," Middlesex East Supplement, Box 240, Reading, MA 01867. We welcome student writing.

'Walk for Bread' Sunday in Malden

Bread of Life's Third Annual Walk For Bread will be held on Sunday, October 22, beginning at 1 pm at Malden City Hall. The 5K ramble will follow a new course this year through Edgeworth to historic Fellsmere Pond.

They hope to catch a glimpse of New England fall, with bright sunshine, blue skies and beautiful red and yellow foliage. Families, Friends, Neighbors, youth groups and hundreds of Bread of Life supporters and volunteers are all welcome.

30's style dance club opens for one night

A 30's style song and dance club and speakeasy will open for one night on October 20, at Memorial Hall, 590 Main Street, Melrose, in the upstairs GAR Hall, courtesy of Theater II, the local one year old community musical theater company.

Theater II debuted one year ago almost to the day with its first cabaret, Cotton Club 590. Based on its success, the company will repeat the cabaret format but add new material, giving the audience a new show and a new experience.

The doors open at 7:30 pm, for adults only. In addition to song and dance entertainment by the community musical theater company, waitresses in 30's era attire will serve a generous quantity of hors d'oeuvres at each table, and libations from

This year's goal is to raise $10,000 for Bread of Life. Board members, staff and volunteers are increasing their pledge-raising efforts. Thus far they have obtained generous sponsorship from Medford Center of Harvard Community Health Plan, American Speedy Printing and A & A Window Products, as well as the Bank of Boston. So let's get ready now and focus our energy!

Each year the Walk for Bread has been a great success! In 1993 there were about 125 brave souls who walked in the rain with umbrellas, plastic bags and newspapers for protection. Children, strollers, grandmothers and grandfathers, young couples, and lots of enthusiastic friends all participated. That year were raised over $2,000.

In 1994 they walked in brilliant sunshine. A stream of people walked down Salem Street, past the Public Library, the Fire Station, and returned by way of the High School. That year we raised about $4,000 to carry on the good work of Bread of Life.

Pick up walking papers today at the Bread of Life office, 511 Main Street, Malden 617-397-0404!

Hotel. Activities will include "Paw Reading," Children's Face Painting, as well as demonstrations of canine CPR, Field Trial Skills, Agility Course Skills, and Pet Grooming.

An "Ask the Trainer" booth will enable owners of pets with obedience or other behavioral problems to have a private consultation with a noted animal behaviorist and trainer. All dog walkers are being asked to pre-register and provide proof of rabies immunization for each dog.

Yankee Golden Retriever Rescue (YGRR) is a fully volunteer, non profit, charitable organization dedicated to providing veterinary care, comprehensive evaluation and adoptive homes to Golden Retrievers who are abandoned, mistreated, neglected, left in pounds throughout New England, or are in need of placement due to compelling family circumstances.

In addition to services for hundreds of young, healthy Golden Retrievers, YGRR operates a program of care and placement for senior Golden Retrievers and Golden Retrievers with special medical needs. Since its founding in 1985, YGRR has provided rescue services to more than 1700 Golden Retrievers. The organization relies on membership dues, donations and fund raising activities for its income.

The dog walk will kick off YGRR's "Field of Golden Dreams" capital campaign, the first such campaign in the nation to establish a permanent shelter for Golden Retrievers.

Presently YGRR is using four veterinarians and holding dogs awaiting adoption in multiple facilities. "The band aid approach will no longer work," says YGRR President Joan Puglia of North Reading, "and the time has come to bring our entire program under one roof and establish a permanent facility for all YGRR operations."

REAL ESTATE

House with great views

With some homes, the name is tacked on as an afterthought. Not so, the Vista. This home was designed for maximum appreciation of a view—hilltop, river bank, lakeside, ocean, or what have you.

Every major room is rimmed with windows facing the rear. And to enhance the viewing possibilities, a wide railed deck spans the entire back of the dwelling, adding extensive outdoor living space.

A vaulted, hexagonal great room, windowed on three sides, is at the core. Two sets of sliding glass doors in the center section provide deck access and allow cooling breezes for air circulation in summer. When the weather turns gray and cloudy, you can kindle a fire in the fireplace and watch the flames.

The kitchen is large, with plenty of counter and cupboard space. Two or more cooks can work together in this kitchen, without getting in each other's way. Standing at the kitchen sink, or in front of the stove, you can gaze across the great room for full enjoyment of the panoramic view. Washer and dryer are close at hand, in an angled utility room equipped with a sink.

The master suite is well-isolated from the secondary bedrooms and boasts its own fireplace and sitting area. Other luxuries include a huge walk-in closet and private bathroom with twin lavs, spa tub, oversized shower and separately enclosed water closet. Glass blocks over the tub provide natural illumination.

The Vista's other two bedrooms share a bathroom. One of the rooms is larger than the other and has a walk-in closet.

For a review plan, including scaled floor plans, elevations, section and artist's conception, send $15 to Associated Designs, 1100 Jacobs Dr., Eugene, Ore. 97402.

Please specify the Vista 10-154 and include a return address when ordering. A catalog featuring over 150 home plans is available for $12. For more information call (800) 634-0123.

RELO independents offer relocation help

Boston Metro RELO, part of the Chicago-based RELO/The International Relocation Network, began as a relocation network for independent real estate owners. The Greater Boston group, however, has evolved into a professional support group of sorts, with owners freely sharing information among the 88 member offices to strengthen their position against "big guys" who are consistently outperforming and outmarketing the independents. The independents are forming a strategic alliance to get the word out that they offer everything the larger franchises do - and more.

Boasting a 34-year history, RELO is the world's largest broker-owned real estate relocation network. Today more than 850 RELO brokers are supported by 50,000-plus sales associates in 14,000 communities and 22 countries.

"Originally, members came to share referrals with each other. But soon we realized that we have become a professional support group, openly sharing marketing tips, and generally providing ways to help each other improve and grow our individual businesses," says Paul McNulty, Metro Boston RELO president.

We offer our sales associates what the big guys don't have. And our agencies offer customers benefits, too - hometown, personalized service; longtime histories in the community; a camaraderie among our sales associates. When you take these benefits and add to it our affiliation with the world's largest relocation network, we offer unparalleled value-added service."

Nationally, independent RELO brokers generally outperform in the markets where they compete. Over the years RELO has assisted more than one million transferees. That translates into over $70 billion in home sales. Consequently, a RELO agent sells a home every minute 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

"We now boast the second largest volume of residential sales of all U.S. networks, including the franchises," says

Towns From S-4 Side walks

Winchester, Woburn and Burlington seniors are participating in a senior health partnership, thanks to Winchester

McNulty, "and Metro Boston RELO with 1,130 associates in 88 offices sold 10,658 units worth $1.8 billion in gross sales."

RELO suggests that if a move is in your future, call upon the expert services of Colonial Manor Realty - in Reading at 127 Franklin Street (617) 944-6300, and in North Reading at 133 Park Street (508) 664-5857.

Hospital and its semi-leisurely walking program.

It's fun, it's fitness, and it's scheduled: the group leaves on Fridays at 9 a.m. from the Horn Pond Parking Lot. The walking sites have benches for both walkers and non-walkers. And members of the official Winchester Hospital Senior Health Partnership are present at each walk.

Call 1-800-353-2088 for information about the partnership program and about individual walking programs - from the look of the smiling faces in a recent "Daily Times Chronicle" photo, men will have a field day at this event.

Keep your garage secure from burglars

(NU) - Is your car garage a safe, secure part of your living space or is it a vulnerable, dangerous shed too easily open to intruders?

Here are useful garage door and home security tips from Clopay Building Products Co., one of the nation's leading garage door manufacturers.

• Burglars often use garages as the primary weak point of entry into a residence. The best defense is a heavy gauge steel door, well insulated and fitted with a proper lock.

A locked garage door should be virtually a tamper-proof fortress.

• Disengage the electronic garage door opener when you are away from home for an extended time and use a manual lock instead.

For safety's sake:

• Be sure the garage door spring is correctly adjusted. You can usually tell if the balance is good if the door hangs 4 to 6 inches below the header (top of the door jamb) without falling closed.

• The door ought to have a safety bottom bracket. Clopay's engineers have introduced a bottom bracket that cannot fly into the room, causing damage and possible serious injury, if the bolts are turned loose.

For additional information on garage doors, call toll-free 1-800-2CLOPAY (1-800-225-6729). Ask for a free copy of "A Guide to Garage Doors."

Common deck problems have simple solutions

(NU) - Outdoor decks are a source of pride for many homeowners. The natural wood compliments a home and is an ideal place for entertaining.

Keeping your deck beautiful is simple once you know the tricks of the trade, reports the wood care experts at the Flood Company. Questions and answers about some common deck problems:

Wooden decks will add beauty to home for years with the right care.

How can I remove nail stains? Wood often darkens and streaks around nails. Chemicals in the wood react with iron in nails, leaving a nasty stain. A deck cleaner, such as Dekswood Cleaner and Brightener, will remove those stains.

My deck has turned gray. What should I do? Wood turns gray because sunlight breaks down the "glue" that binds wood cells together, leaving behind a very thin mat of loose wood fiber. Dirt collects and changes the wood's appearance to a light, then darker gray. Cleaning with a deck cleaner will restore the natural color. Graying can be controlled with a protective finish.

Should I treat the wood on my new deck? In the past, experts recommended treating wood only after it weathers. Excess moisture in new wood, mill glaze and natural chemicals prevent finishes from penetrating into the wood. However, researchers have developed a formula that will penetrate and protect new wood while still allowing it to weather. Seasonite New Wood Treatment prevents warping, cupping and splitting, while allowing the wood to weather naturally.

What can I do about water spots? Washing with a deck cleaner will remove unsightly water spots caused by sprinklers, hot tubs and swimming pools. A finish such as CWF-UV Clear Wood Finish will restore the natural color.

What do you do when the wood color is uneven? Wood can weather unevenly for many reasons including uneven application of the original finish, foot traffic patterns, unequal exposure to sun and weather, etc. Touch up light areas with the finish. Allow heavily coated areas to continue to weather.

How do you get rid of mold and mildew stains? Scrub mold and mildew spots with a mixture of bleach and water, then rinse thoroughly. However, do not use a bleach cleaner on the entire deck. Bleach can weaken the delicate wood fibers and break down the wood surface. Use a non-bleach cleaner such as Dekswood Cleaner and Brightener to remove other stains.

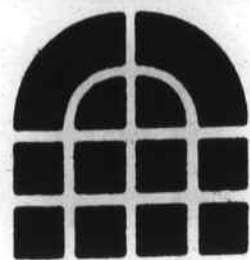

For a free wood care guide, call the experts at the Flood Company, 1-800-321-3444, or write Wood Care Guide, P.O. Box 2535, Hudson, Ohio 44236-0035.
